STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni JACOBI Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ & Hiberniæ,

VIZ.

Angliæ, Franciæ & Hiberniæ ſecundo [vulgo primo,] & Scotiæ triceſimo ſeptimo.

At the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the nineteeth Day of March in the firſt Year of the Reign of our moſt gracious Sovereign Lord James, by the Grace of God, of England, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and of Scotland the ſeven and thirtieth, and there continued until the ſeventh Day of July one thouſand ſix hundred four, and then prorogued until the ſeventh of February next following: To the high Pleaſure of Almighty God, and the Weal publick of this Realm, were enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

A moſt joyful and juſt Recognition of the immediate, lawful and undoubted Succeſſion, Deſcent and Right of the Crown.

A Recognition that the Crown of England is lawfully deſcended unto King James, his Progeny and Poſterity.

The Benefits enſuing by the Conjunction of the Houſes of York and Lancaſter.

The uniting of England and Scotland in the King's Perſon.

'GREAT and manifold were the Benefits (moſt dread and moſt gracious Sovereign) wherewith Almighty God bleſſed this Kingdom and Nation by the happy Union and Conjunction of the two noble Houſes of York and Lancaſter, thereby preſerving this noble Realm, formerly torn and almoſt waſted with long and miſerable Diſſenſion and bloody civil War; (2) but more ineſtimable and unſpeakable Bleſſings are thereby poured upon us, becauſe there is derived and grown from and out of that Union of thoſe two princely Families, a more famous and greater Union (or rather a Re-uniting) of two mighty, famous and ancient Kingdoms (yet anciently but one) of England and Scotland, under one Imperial Crown, in your moſt Royal Perſon, who is lineally, rightfully and lawfully deſcended of the Body of the moſt excellent Lady Margaret, eldeſt Daughter of the moſt renowned King Henry the Seventh, and the High and Noble Princeſs Queen Elizabeth his Wife, eldeſt Daughter of King Edward the Fourth; the ſaid Lady Margaret being eldeſt Siſter of King Henry the Eighth, Father of the High and Mighty Princeſs of famous Memory, Elizabeth late Queen of England:

The Acknowledgment of the King's Title, and the Love of his Subjects, ſhewed by ſeveral Means.

'II. In Conſideration whereof, albeit we your Majeſty's Loyal and Faithful Subjects, of all Eſtates and Degrees, with all poſſible and publick Joy and Acclamation, by open Proclamations within few Hours after the Deceaſe of our late Sovereign Queen, acknowledging thereby with one full Voice of Tongue and Heart, That your Majeſty was our only lawful and rightful Liege Lord and Sovereign, by our unſpeakable and general Rejoycing and Applauſe at your Majeſty's moſt happy Inauguration and Coronation, by the affectionate Deſire of infinite Numbers of us, of all Degrees, to ſee your Royal Perſon, and by all poſſible outward Means have endeavoured to make Demonſtration of our inward Love, Zeal and Devotion to your moſt excellent Majeſty, our undoubtful rightful Liege Sovereign Lord and King: (2) Yet as we cannot do it too often, or enough, ſo can there be no Means or Ways ſo fit, both to ſacrifice our unfeigned and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, for bleſſing us with a Sovereign adorned 'with the rareſt Gifts of Mind and Body, in ſuch admirable Peace and Quietneſs, and upon the Knees 'of our Hearts to agnize our moſt conſtant Faith, Obedience and Loyalty to your Majeſty and your 'Royal Progeny, as in this High Court of Parliament, where all the whole Body of the Realm, and 'every particular Member thereof, either in Perſon or by Repreſentation (upon their own free Elections) 'are by the Laws of this Realm deemed to be perſonally preſent.

Several Cauſes that have bound all Subjects to the Love and Obedience of the King.

'III. To the Acknowledgment whereof to your Majeſty, we are the more deeply bounden and obliged, 'as well in regard of the extraordinary Care and Pains which with ſo great Wiſdom, Knowledge, Expe- 'rience and Dexterity, your Majeſty (ſithence the Imperial Crown of this Realm deſcended to you) have 'taken for the Continuance and Eſtabliſhment of the bleſſed Peace both of the Church of England in the 'true and ſincere Religion, and of the Commonwealth by due and ſpeedy Adminiſtration of Juſtice, as 'in reſpect of the gracious Care and inward Affection which it pleaſed you on the firſt Day of this Par- 'liament ſo lively to expreſs by your own Words, ſo full of high Wiſdom, Learning and Virtue, and ſo 'repleat with Royal and thankful Acceptation of all our faithful and conſtant Endeavours, which is and 'ever will be to our ineſtimable Conſolation and Comfort.

Cauſes of Thankſgiving to God for the King and his Progeny.

'IV. We therefore your moſt humble and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the 'Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, do from the Bottom of our Hearts, yield to the Di- 'vine Majeſty all humble Thanks and Praiſes, not only for the ſaid unſpeakable and ineſtimable Benefits 'and Bleſſings above-mentioned, but alſo that he hath further enriched your Highneſs with a moſt Royal 'Progeny of moſt rare and excellent Gifts and Forwardneſs, and in his Goodneſs is likely to increaſe 'the happy Number of them': (2) And in moſt humble and lowly Manner do beſeech your moſt ex- cellent Majeſty, that (as a Memorial to all Poſterities, amongſt the Records of your High Court of Parliament for ever to endure, of our Loyalty, Obedience and hearty and humble Affection) (3) it may be publiſhed and declared in this High Court of Parliament, and enacted by Authority of the ſame, That we (being bounden thereunto both by the Laws of God and Man) do recognize and acknowledge (and thereby expreſs our unſpeakable Joys) That immediately upon the Diſſolution and Deceaſe of Elizabeth late Queen of England, the Imperial Crown of the Realm of England, and of all the Kingdoms, Dominions and Rights belonging to the ſame, did by inherent Birthright, and lawful and undoubted Succeſſion, de- ſcend and come to your moſt excellent Majeſty, as being lineally, juſtly and lawfully, next and ſole Heir of the Blood Royal of this Realm as is aforeſaid; (4) and that by the Goodneſs of God Almighty, and lawful Right of Deſcent, under one Imperial Crown, your Majeſty is of the Realms and Kingdoms of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, the moſt potent and mighty King, and by God's Goodneſs more able to protect and govern us your loving Subjects in all Peace and Plenty, than any of your noble Pro- genitors: (5) And thereunto we moſt humbly and faithfully do ſubmit and oblige ourſelves, our Heirs and Poſterities for ever, until the laſt Drop of our Bloods be ſpent: And do beſeech your Majeſty to ac- cept the ſame, as the Firſt-fruits in this High Court of Parliament, of our Loyalty and Faith to your Majeſty, and your Royal Progeny and Poſterity for ever: (6) Which if your Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed (as an Argument of your gracious Acceptation) to adorn with your Majeſty's Royal Aſſent, without which it can neither be compleat and perfect, nor remain to all Poſterity, according to our moſt humble Deſire, (as a Memorial of your princely and tender Affection towards us) we ſhall add this alſo to the Reſt of your Majeſty's unſpeakable and ineſtimable Benefits.

Immediately upon Queen Elizabeth's Death the Crown of England, &c. deſcended to the King by lawful Birthright and Deſcent.

CAP. II.

An Act authorizing certain Commiſſioners of England to treat with Commiſſioners of Scotland, for the Weal of both Kingdoms. 3 Jac. 1. c. 3. 4 Jac. 1. c. 1. 22 Car. 2. c. 9.

EXP.

'WHEREAS his moſt excellent Majeſtie hath beene pleaſed, out of his great Wiſedome and 'Judgement, not only to repreſent unto us by his owne prudent and princely Speech on the firſt 'Day of this Parliament, how much hee deſired, (in regard of his inward, and gracious Affection to 'both the famous and ancient Realmes of England and Scotland, now united in Allegeance and Loyall Sub- 'jection in his Royall Perſon, to his Majeſtie and his Poſterity for ever) that by a ſpeedy, mature and 'ſound Deliberation, ſuch a further Union might follow, as ſhould make perfect that mutuall Love and 'Uniformity of Manners and Cuſtomes, which Almighty God in his Providence for the Strength and 'Saftie of both Realmes hath already ſo far begun in apparent Sight of all the World, but alſo hath 'vouchſafed to expreſſe many Ways, how farre it is, and ever ſhall be from his Royall and ſincere Care 'and Affection to the Subjects of England, to alter and innovate the fundamentall and ancient Lawes, 'Priviledges and good Cuſtomes of this Kingdome, whereby not onely his Regall Authority, but the 'People's Security of Lands, Livings and Priviledges (both in generall and particular) are preſerved and 'maintained, and by the Aboliſhing or Alteration of the which, it is impoſſible but that preſent Confu- 'ſion will fall upon the whole State and Frame of this Kingdome.

'II. Foraſmuch as his Majeſties humble, faithful and loving Subjects, have not onely conceived the 'Weight of his Majeſties Reaſons, but apprehend to their unſpeakable Joy and Comfort, his plaine, 'cleere and gracious Intention, to ſeek no other Changes or Alteration, but of ſuch particular, tempo- 'rary or indifferent Manner of Statutes and Cuſtomes, as may both prevent and extinguiſh all and every 'future Queſtions, or unhappy Accidents, by which the perfect and conſtant Love and Friendſhip and 'Quietneſſe between the Subjects of both the Realmes aforeſaid, may be compleated and confirmed, and

'alſo

'alſo performe and accompliſh that real and effectuall Union already inherent in his Maieſties Royal 'Blood and Perſon, and now deſired by his Maieſtie to be performed and brought to an End, for the 'Weale of both Kingdomes, by this Courſe following, &c.

II. And whereas the ſaid Act hath not according to the true Meaning thereof, been duly put in Execution, whereby the Rates of Wages for poor Artificers, Labourers and other Perſons, whoſe Wages was meant to be rated by the ſaid Act, have not been rated and proportioned according to the Plenty, Scarcity, Neceſſity, and Reſpect of the Time, which was politickly intended by the ſaid Act; (2) by reaſon that Ambiguity and Queſtion have riſen and been made, whether the rating of all manner Artificers, Workmen and Work-women, his and their Wages, other than ſuch as by ſome Statute and Law have been rated, or elſe ſuch as did work about Huſbandry, ſhould or might be rated by the ſaid Law: Foraſmuch as the ſaid Law hath been found beneficial for the Commonwealth;'

IV. And whereas in divers Shires within this Realm, the Juſtices of Peace have not uſually kept their General Seſſions in one Place of the Shire together, but the General Seſſions have been kept in ſeveral Places for ſeveral Diviſions, by reaſon whereof the moſt Part of the Juſtices of the Peace coming not together, no rating of Wages could be well made in the ſaid Shire where ſuch General Seſſions have been uſed; and for other Reſpects,'

The Forfeiture of a Clothier not paying the Wages rated to his Workmen.

VII. And furthermore, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Clothier or other ſhall refuſe to obey the ſaid Order, Rate and Aſſeſſment of Wages as aforeſaid, and ſhall not pay ſo much or ſo great Wages to their Weavers, Spinſters, Workmen or Work-women, as ſhall be ſo ſet down, rated and appointed, according to the true Meaning of this Act; That then every Clothier and other Perſon and Perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Offence to the Party grieved, ten Shillings: (2)

And

And that if the ſaid Offence and Offences of not paying ſo much or ſo great Wages to their ſaid Workmen, Work-women and others, ſhall be confeſſed by the Offender, or that the ſame ſhall be proved by two ſufficient and lawful Witneſſes before the Juſtices of Peace in their Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, the Juſtices of Aſſize in their Seſſions, or before any two Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum; That then every ſuch Perſon ſhall forthwith ſtand and be in Law convicted thereof: (3) Which ſaid Forfeiture of ten Shillings ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant from the ſaid Juſtices before whom any ſuch Conviction ſhall be had; which Sale ſhall be good in Law againſt any ſuch Offender and Offenders.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall incur any Danger or Penalty for not making Certificate unto the King's moſt Honourable Court of the Chancery, of any Rates of Wages appointed to be certified by the ſaid Act made in the ſaid fifth Year of the ſaid late Queen, ſo as the ſame be proclaimed according to the true Intent of this Law; (2) but the ſaid Rates ingroſſed in Parchment and ſealed as aforeſaid ſhall, if the ſame be in any Shire, be kept by the Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County, amongſt the Records in his Cuſtody for the ſaid Shire, and in any City or Town Corporate, amongſt the Records of the ſaid City or Town Corporate. (3) This Act to continue until the End of the next Parliament.

The Rates of Wages need not to be certified into the Chancery, but proclaimed in the County. 5 Eliz. c. 4. The Continuance of this Act.

A Rehearſal of the Statute of 8 Eliz. c. 11.

WHEREAS in the Parliament by Prorogation holden at Weſtminſter the laſt Day of September in the eighth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, Queen of England, there was made one Statute, intituled, An Act for the true Making of Hats and Caps; by one Branch whereof it was enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons, by him or herſelf, or any other, ſhould, after the Feaſt of the Nativity of St. John Baptiſt then next coming, make, or work any Felt or Hat, of or with any foreign Wool or Stuff, unleſs ſuch Perſon ſhould firſt have been Apprentice or Covenant Servant to ſuch Myſtery of Hat and Felt making, by the Space of ſeven Years at the leaſt; (2) upon Pain to forfeit all ſuch Hats or Felts as he ſhould make or cauſe to be made, while he worketh contrary to the Form of the ſaid Act, and five Pounds in Money for every Month that he ſhould ſo continue, as by the ſaid Act (amongſt divers other Things therein contained) more plainly may appear: (3) Foraſmuch as by the ſaid Act, no Part of the Forfeitures or Penalties for ſuch as ſet up and do exerciſe the ſaid Art of Hat and Felt making, and have not been Apprentice or Covenant Servant thereunto by the Space of ſeven Years, (4) nor no Penalty nor Forfeiture at all for taking of Apprentices or Covenant Servants contrary to the Tenor of the ſaid Act, is given or appointed to any common Perſon that would ſue for the ſame; (5) The Execution of the ſaid Act hath been wholly neglected, and the ſame in theſe two Branches have been likewiſe tranſgreſſed, and divers Perſons that never were Apprentices to the ſaid Art, and ſome that have ſerved but only ſome few Years therein, have taken upon them to ſet up and exerciſe the ſame Art, and retained great Number of Apprentices, who daily go away from their Maſters, and before their Terms be ended, and being unſkilful, do make and put to ſale great Quantities of Hats and Felts very falſly and deceitfully made and wrought, to the great Damage of his Majeſty's moſt loving ſubjects:'

Who ſhall have the Forfeiture accrued by the Stat. of 8 Eliz. c. 11. and this Statute.

II. For Reformation whereof, Be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after forty Days next enſuing the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, the Moiety or one Half Part of all and every the Forfeitures and Penalties contained in the ſame former Act, that ſhall ariſe or grow due after the End of the ſaid forty Days next enſuing the End of this Seſſion of Parlia-

Parliament, and alſo the Moiety or one Half-part of all and every the Forfeitures and Penalties hereafter limited and appointed in and by this preſent Act, ſhall be to our Sovereign Lord the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety or Half-part thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as will ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, to be commenced or brought or proſecuted in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be admitted or allowed for the Defendant.

Who only may be Felt-makers, and who their Servants, and how many.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons from and after the ſaid forty Days ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any Felt or Hat, of or with any Wool or Stuff whatſoever, unleſs he or they ſhall have firſt ſerved as Apprentices in the foreſaid Trade or Art of Felt-making during the Space of ſeven Years at the leaſt; neither ſhall they retain and ſet to work in the ſaid Art any other Perſon or Perſons than Journeymen that have lawfully ſerved in that Art, and Apprentices lawfully bound in the ſaid Trade or Art, nor above the Number of two Apprentices at one Time, nor thoſe for any leſs Term than ſeven Years; (2) upon Pain to forfeit five Pound for every Month that he ſhall continue offending contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, and to be recovered to the Uſes and in Manner aforeſaid.

No Stranger ſhall be ſet on work in making of Hats.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons from and after the ſaid forty Days, ſhall retain or ſet on work in the ſaid Art of Hat or Felt-making, any Perſon or Perſons born out of his Majeſty's Realms and Dominions of England, Scotland, and Ireland, upon Pain to forfeit five Pound for every Month wherein ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſo offend contrary to the Meaning of this Act, and to be recovered to the Uſes and in Manner and Form aforeſaid.

Hat-makers Sons.

V. Provided always, That nothing in this Act or in the ſaid former Act contained ſhall extend to charge any Perſon or Perſons lawfully exerciſing the ſaid Art, with any Pain or Forfeiture, for ſetting or uſing his or their own natural Son or Sons to the Making or Working of Hats or Felts, in his or their own Houſe or Houſes, ſo as every ſuch Son or Sons be bound by Indenture of Apprenticehood for the Term of ſeven Years at the leaſt, which Term ſhall not be to expire before he ſhall be of the full Age of two and twenty Years; any Thing aboveſaid to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Felt-makers at the Time of this Statute, and their Servants, may ſo continue.

VI. CAP. XVIII.

An Act for Avoiding of deceitful Buying and Spending corrupt and unwholſom Hops.

The Penalty for bringing into this Realm corrupted Hops, or for brewing with them.

Several Falſhoods practiſed by Strangers in packing of Hops.

'FOraſmuch as of late great Frauds and Deceits are generally practiſed and uſed by Foreigners, Merchants, Strangers and others in foreign Parts beyond the Seas, in the falſe Packing of all foreign Hops brought into this Realm of England from foreign Parts, by Way of Merchandize here to be uttered and ſold, with Leaves, Stalks, Powder, Sand, Straw, and with Loggets of Wood, Droſs and other Soil in very many Sacks of Hops for Increaſe of the Weight thereof, ſelling the ſame together for ſo much Money as the Hops are ſold for, to the enriching of themſelves by Deceit: (2) By Means of which falſe Packing of foreign Hops, the Subjects of this Realm have been of late Years abuſed and deceived unto the Value of twenty thouſand Pounds yearly at the leaſt, beſides the Danger of the Subjects Healths, for that in many Sacks of foreign Hops there is not found ſcarce one third Part to be good and clean Hops, the Reſt being Droſs and Soil':

II. For Reformation whereof, Be it therefore enacted by our Sovereign Lord the King, and by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Foreigner, Stranger, native Engliſhman, Denizen, Merchant or any other Perſon or Perſons whoſoever, do at any Time or Times from or after the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel next coming after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, bring or cauſe to be brought, into this Realm of England, out from any other foreign Realm or Dominions from beyond the Seas, any Hops being deceitfully or corruptly unclean, corrupt or mixt with any Powder, Duſt, Droſs, Sand or any other Soil whatſoever, that every Perſon ſo offending therein contrary to this Act, ſhall forfeit the ſame Hops ſo brought into this Realm.

The Forfeiture for brewing Ale or Beer to be ſold with corrupt or mingled Hops.

III. And for the better Avoiding of the Danger of Sickneſs by uſing of the falſe packed, unclean and corrupt Hops; (2) Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Brewer of Beer or Ale, or any other Perſon which ſhall buy the ſame Hops ſo brought from beyond the Seas or growing within this Realm, and ſhall imploy and ſpend the ſame about the Making or Brewing of Beer or Ale to be ſold, being unclean, corrupt or mixt with any Powder, Duſt, Droſs, Sand or any other Soil whatſoever, every Perſon ſo offending therein contrary to the Intent of this Act, ſhall in like Sort forfeit for the ſame Offence, the Value of thoſe Hops ſo bought, imployed or ſpent in Brewing; (3) the one Moiety of all which Forfeitures ſhall be to our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the other Moiety thereof to him or them that will ſeize the ſame, or ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint, Information or Action of Debt in any of the King's Courts of Record; in which no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, &c.

IV. This Act to continue to the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament. [3 Car. 1. c. 4. Continued until the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. cap. 4.]

CAP. XX.

An Act for Redreſs of certain Abuſes and Deceits uſed in Painting.

A Plaiſterer ſhall not uſe the Occupation of a Painter in London.

WHEREAS the Art or Myſtery of Painters is an ancient Art and Myſtery, and hath Time out of Mind been an ancient Company and Fellowſhip within the City of London; (2) and of late upon due Conſiderations, the Freemen of the ſaid City of that Faculty, Art or Myſtery (by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, dated at Weſtminſter the nineteenth Day of July in the three and twentieth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth) were incorporate by the Name of Maſter, Wardens and Commonalty of the Freemen of the Art and Myſtery of Painters, commonly called Painters-Stainers within the City of London and the Suburbs and Liberties of the ſame City: (3) And furthermore, by the ſaid Letters Patents it is prohibited, enjoined and commanded, that no Perſon or Perſons of whatſoever Eſtate, Degree or Condition they were, ſhould uſe, exerciſe or occupy the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Painters, commonly called Painters-Stainers, or any Work or Works, Colour or Colours, Painting or Paintings in the ſaid Art or Myſtery occupied, unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons before that Time had been brought up and inſtructed, or ſhould from that Time forwards be brought up and inſtructed, by or with ſome one Perſon of the ſaid Art or Myſtery as an Apprentice by the Space of ſeven Years at the leaſt:

Incorporated by Queen Elizabeth.

Who only may occupy that Myſtery.

Searching of Painting-work, and ſeizing the Deceitful.

'II And whereas for the Avoiding of Deceit to be uſed in the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Painting, the ſaid late Queen by the aforeſaid Letters Patents, did grant unto the ſaid Maſter and Wardens, and to their Succeſſors, That they ſhould have full Power and Authority for ever, to make or cauſe to be made due Search of all and ſingular the Works, Colours, Paintings and other Things whatſoever to the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Painting in any wiſe appertaining, or touching or concerning the ſame, as well upon the Freemen of the ſaid Myſtery as upon any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſelling, making or working the ſame within the City of London or the Liberties or Suburbs of the ſame: (2) And the ſaid Works, Colours and Paintings whatſoever ſo deceitfully made, to ſeize and take away, and the Offenders therein to puniſh and correct, as by the ſame Letters Patents more at large it doth and may appear.

Plaiſterers do uſe the Art of Painters-Stainers.

'III. And whereas the Plaiſterers within the City of London, of old Time uſing nothing but Lathing, Dawbing, Plaiſtering and Liming, did and yet do procure thereby for themſelves and their Families a convenient Living and Maintenance: (2) Yet not ſatisfied with that reaſonable Living that they do make of their ſaid proper Faculties and Trades, wherewith and wherein they have been brought up as Apprentices, have now of late uſed and practiſed the Art and Myſtery of Painters-Stainers, as well with Oil-Colours, as Size-Colours, and that ſince the Making of the ſaid Letters Patents more uſually than in former Times they have uſed or did; (3) whereby not only many of the ſaid Art and Myſtery of Painters, who have well and honeſtly as Apprentices to the ſame ſerved for the ſpace of ſeven Years and upwards, and by their Labours and Induſtries have attained to the full and perfect Skill and Knowledge thereof, are not only diſabled to get any competent Living thereby, for the Relief of themſelves, their poor Wives and Children, but alſo for that the ſaid Plaiſterers, not having been trained up in the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Painting, neither can or do make any ſuch good Work or ſuch ſure and perfect Colours, as others having been trained up in the ſame Trade and Apprentices thereunto, and yet utter the ſame for good and perfect Colours, and being no Freemen of the ſaid Company of Painters-Stainers, eſcape therefore unpuniſhed, to the great Abuſe and Deceit of his Majeſty's moſt loving Subjects, and whereby the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Painting is likely in ſuch Sort in ſhort Time to decay, as that there will not be ſufficient Workmen of Skill in and about the ſaid City to ſerve in the ſaid Art his Majeſty or any other his Majeſty's Subjects.'

No Plaiſterer ſhall uſe the Art of a Painter-Stainer in London, &c.

IV. For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred and ſix, next coming after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, no manner of Perſon or Perſons, being or pretending to be a Plaiſterer, or hereafter to become or to be a Plaiſterer, or being or which ſhall be a Servant, or ſet on Work by any Plaiſterer, ſhall uſe, exerciſe or ſet up the Art, Myſtery or manual Occupation of a Painter, commonly called a Painter-Stainer, or any Part thereof, in the City of London, or the Liberties or Suburbs of the ſame; or ſhall within the Places aforeſaid make any Manner of Work or Works, or lay any Manner of Colour or Colours, Painting or Paintings whatſoever, in the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Painters-Stainers aforeſaid at any Time heretofore occupied or uſed, unleſs he or they be or ſhall be the Servant or Servants, Apprentice or Apprentices of a Painter, otherwiſe called a Painter-Stainer, or have ſerved or ſhall ſerve as an Apprentice or as Apprentices by the Space of ſeven Years at the leaſt to a Painter, otherwiſe called a Painter-Stainer; (2) upon Pain that every ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall hereafter do or offend contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this preſent Act, ſhall forfeit for every Time that he or they ſhall ſo do or offend, the Sum of five Pounds of lawful Money of England; (3) the one Moiety of all which Forfeitures ſhall be to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the King's Majeſty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information; in which ſaid Suit, no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be admitted or allowed for the ſaid Defendant; any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom heretofore had or uſed to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Forfeiture of an Offender.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any of the Company of Plaiſterers, or their Servants or Apprentices, to lay and uſe Whiting, Blacking, Redlead, Red-okar, Yellow-okar, and Ruſſet, mingled with Size only, and not with Oil; this preſent Act or any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. What Things a Plaiſterer may uſe in his Work.

VI. Provided alſo, That no Painter or Painter's Servant or Apprentice ſhall have or take above Sixteenpence by the Day for laying of any flat Colour whatſoever, mingled or mixed with Oil or Size, upon any Timber, Stone, Iron or Lead. The Day Wages of a Painter.

CAP. XXI.

An Act againſt Brokers.

'FOraſmuch as of long and ancient Time by divers hundred Years there have been uſed within the City of London and Liberties thereof, certain Freemen of the City, to be ſelected out of the Companies and Myſteries whereof they are free and Members, and the ſame Perſons to be preſented at leaſt by ſix approved and known honeſt Perſons of the ſame Myſtery, to the Lord Mayor of London for the Time being, and to the Aldermen his Brethren, and to be recommended by ſuch Preſentors to be Perſons for their known approved Honeſty, Integrity and Faithfulneſs, Perſons meet for to be Broker or Brokers, and upon ſuch Relation made to the Mayor and Aldermen, and partly by their own Knowledge and diligent Enquiries made of the ſaid Perſons, and of their honeſt Fame, Report, Fidelity and Skill, have been thereupon admitted, allowed and approved by the Lord Mayor of the City and Aldermen in the Court of Aldermen, to be Brokers within the ſaid City and Liberties of the ſame, and have taken their corporal Oaths before the ſaid Mayor and Aldermen, from Time to Time as they were ſo preſented and admitted, to uſe and demean themſelves uprightly and faithfully between Merchant Engliſh and Merchant Strangers, and Tradeſmen, in the contriving, making and concluding Bargains and Contracts to be made between them concerning their Wares and Merchandizes to be bought and ſold and contracted for within the City of London, and Monies to be taken up by Exchange between ſuch Merchant and Merchants, and Tradeſmen; and theſe kind of Perſons ſo preſented, allowed and ſworn to be Brokers, as aforeſaid, have had and born the Name of Brokers, and been known, called and taken for Brokers, and dealing in Brokerage or Brokery; (2) who never of any ancient Time uſed to buy and ſell Garments, Houſhold-Stuff, or to take Pawns and Bills of Sale of Garments and Apparel, and all Things that come to hand, for Money laid out and lent upon Uſury, or to keep open Shops, and to make open Shews, and an open Trade, as now of late Years hath and is uſed by a Number of Citizens, aſſuming unto themſelves the Name of Brokers and Brokerage, as though the ſame were an honeſt and lawful Trade, Myſtery or Occupation, terming and naming themſelves Brokers, whereas in Truth they are not, abuſing the true and honeſt ancient Name and Trade of Broker or Brokerage. The Differences between the ancient and preſent Brokers.

'II. And foraſmuch as many Citizens Freemen of the City, being Men of manual Occupations and Handicraftſmen, and others inhabiting and remaining near the City and Suburbs of the ſame, have left and given over, and daily do leave and give over, their handy and manual Occupations, and have and daily do ſet up a Trade of buying and ſelling and taking to Pawn of all kind of worn Apparel, whether it be old, or little the worſe for wearing, Houſhold-Stuff and Goods, of what kind ſoever the ſame be of, finding thereby that the ſame is a more idle and eaſier kind of Trade of living, and that there ariſeth and groweth to them a more ready, more great, more profitable, and ſpeedier Advantage and Gain, than by their former manual Labours and Trades did or could bring them: The Abuſe of Brokerage in theſe later Years.

'III. And foraſmuch as the ſaid kind of counterfeit Brokers, and Pawn-takers upon Uſury or otherwiſe for ready Money, are grown of late to many Hundreds within the City of London, and other Places next adjoining to the City and Liberties of the ſame, and are like to increaſe to far greater Multitudes, being Friperers, and no Brokers, nor exerciſing of any honeſt and lawful Trade, and within the Memory of many yet living, ſuch kind of Perſons Tradeſmen were very few, and of ſmall Number: Friperers and no Brokers.

'IV. 'XII And foraſmuch as much Damage hath redounded to the Commonwealth, by Reaſon that di-
'vers Tanners for their private Lucre have uſed to convert to Sole-leather ſuch Hides as are altogether in-
'ſufficient for that Uſe, which Hides they do raiſe in the Workmanſhip by divers Mixtures, thereby
'making the ſame to ſeem very ſtrong and ſubſtantial Leather, whereas the ſame doth in the wearing prove
'hollow, deceitful, and altogether unprofitable for the Commonwealth:'

Crafty Means to overhaſten the Tanning of Leather.

'XVI. And whereas divers Tanners for Greedineſs of Gain do overmuch haſten the Tanning of their 'Leather, and for that Purpoſe do uſe divers crafty and ſubtile Practices, ſometimes laying their Leather in 'their Fats, ſet in their old Tanhills, where it may be tanned in the hot Woozes, taking unkind Heat in 'the ſame Hill, and ſometimes by putting of hot Woozes into their Tan-fats where the ſame Hides or 'Leather lie, by which and other like fraudulent Practices they make their Leather to ſeem both fair and 'well and ſufficiently tanned, within a very ſhort Space:'

Leather ſhall not take unkind Heats.

XVII. For Reformation whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That after the ſaid Feaſt of St. Bartholomew next coming, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſet their Fats in Tanhills, or other Places, where the Woozes or Leather that ſhall be put to tan in the ſame, ſhall or may take any unkind Heats, or ſhall put any Leather into any hot or warm Woozes, or ſhall tan any Hide, Calve-ſkin or Sheep-ſkin, with any hot or warm Woozes whatſoever; (2) upon Pain that every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence ten Pounds, and ſhall alſo for every ſuch Offence ſtand upon the Pillory three ſeveral Market-Days in the Market-Town next to the Place where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed.

'XVIII. And foraſmuch as Bark is of late become very dear and ſcarce, which happeneth partly by 'Reaſon that divers Perſons do ingroſs and buy great Quantities thereof, and then do ſell the ſame again 'at exceſſive and unreaſonable Prices, and partly by the unſeaſonable felling of Oak out of the Barking-'time:'

There ſhall be no Regrating or Ingroſſing of Oaken Bark.

XIX. Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall regrate, ingroſs, or get into his or their Hands by Buying, Contracting or Promiſe-taking, any Oaken Bark, before it be ſtripped, or after, to the Intent to ſell the ſame again; (2) upon Pain of Forfeiture of all ſuch Barks ſo by him or them regrated, ingroſſed or bought, contrary to the true Meaning of this preſent Branch, or the full Value thereof.

At what Time Oaken Trees to be barked ſhall be felled.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall from and after the ſaid Feaſt of St. Bartholomew next coming, fell or cauſe to be felled any Oaken Trees meet to be barked, where Bark is worth two Shillings a Cart-load, over and above the Charges of Barking and Pilling, (Timber to be imployed to and for the neceſſary and needful Building or Reparation of Houſes, Ships or Mills, only excepted) but between the firſt Day of April and the laſt Day of June; upon Pain of Forfeiture of every ſuch Oaken Tree ſo felled, or the double Value thereof.

When Purveyors ſhall fell Timber. OBS. 12 Car. 2. c. 24.

'XXI. And for the better Preſervation of Timber, which by the Takers of Timber is ſpoiled through 'the greedy Deſire of Gain of the Lops, Tops or Bark of Timber-trees'; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Taker or Takers, Purveyor or Purveyors of Timber, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, ſhall fell or cauſe to be felled for the Uſe of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, any Oaken Timber-tree or Trees meet to be barked, but in barking Time, (Trees to be felled for the needful and neceſſary Building or Repairing of any his Majeſty's Houſes or Ships only excepted); (2) or ſhall in any wiſe take or receive any Manner of Profit, Gain or Commodity by any Lops, Tops or Bark of any Trees, to be taken by them or any of them; (3) or ſhall in any wiſe take, carry, away, give, ſell or diſpoſe from the Owner, any more of any Tree to be taken as is aforeſaid, than only the Timber of the ſame Tree or Trees to be uſed and beſtowed, or imployed only in, upon or about the King's Majeſty's Buildings or Ships; (4) upon Pain of Forfeiture to the Party grieved, for every Tree, and for the Lops, Tops or Bark of every Tree, taken contrary to the Meaning of this Article, forty Shillings; (5) and that it ſhall be lawful to the Party of whom ſuch Tree or Trees ſhall be taken, or to any other for and in his Name, to take, retain, withhold and keep to himſelf all the Bark, Lop and Top of ſuch Tree or Trees, any Commiſſion or other Matter whatſoever notwithſtanding.

No taking of Lops.

Currying of Leather.

'XXII. And foraſmuch as no Leather can be ſo well tanned, but it may be marred in the Currying,' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel next coming, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall curry any Kind of Leather in the Houſe of any Shoemaker or other Perſon, but only in his own Houſe ſituate in a Corporate or Market-Town; (2) nor ſhall curry any Kind of Leather, except it be well and perfectly tanned; (3) nor ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt of St. Bartholomew curry any Hide or Skin being not throughly dry, after his wet Seaſon, in which wet Seaſon he ſhall not uſe any ſtale Urine, or any other deceitful or ſubtile Mixture, Thing, Way or Means, to corrupt or hurt the ſame; (4) nor ſhall curry any Leather meet for Utter-ſole-leather with any other Stuff than with hard Tallow, nor with any leſs of that than the Leather will receive; (5) nor ſhall curry any Kind of Leather meet for Over-leather and Inner-ſoles, but with good and ſufficient Stuff, being freſh and not ſalt, and throughly liquored till it can receive no more; (6) nor ſhall burn or ſcald any Hide or Leather in the Currying; (7) nor ſhall ſhave any Leather too thin; nor ſhall gaſh or hurt any Leather in the Shaving, or by any other Means; (8) but ſhall work the ſame ſufficiently in all Points and Reſpects: Upon Pain of Forfeiture for every ſuch Offence or Acts done contrary to the true Meaning of this Article (other than in gaſhing or hurting in Shaving) ſix Shillings eight Pence, and the Value of every ſuch Skin or Hide marred by his evil Workmanſhip; (9) and for every Offence to be done againſt this Article in gaſhing or hurting by Shaving, double ſo much to the Party grieved, as the Leather ſhall be impaired thereby, by the Judgment of the Wardens of the Curriers, and the Wardens of the Company whereof the Party grieved ſhall be.

The Currier's Forfeiture for miſuſing of Leather. 2 Salk. 609.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Cordwainer, Shoemaker, or other Perſon or Perſons dwelling or inhabiting within the City of London or the Liberties of the ſame, or dwelling within three Miles of the ſaid City, and occupying wet curried Leather in his Art or Occupation, ſhall put or cauſe to be put any Leather to be curried, but to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as be or ſhall be free of the Company of the Curriers of the City of London, upon Pain of Forfeiture of all ſuch curried Leather or the Value thereof. [Rep. 12 Geo. 2. c. 25.]

Who ſhall curry Leather in or near London.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall by any Means occupy or put in any made Wares within the City of London, or three Miles of the ſame City, any curried Leather, before the ſame ſhall be ſearched and allowed by the Wardens of the Curriers of London for the Time being, or ſuch Perſons as they ſhall thereto aſſign, and be ſealed with a Seal therefore to be prepared; (2) upon Pain that every Shoemaker, and other Artificer Cutter of Leather, offending againſt this Article, ſhall forfeit for every Hide or Skin otherwiſe curried or imployed as is aforeſaid, ſix Shillings eight Pence, and the Value of every ſuch Hide or Skin. [Rep. 12 Geo. 2. c. 25.]

Curried Leather ſhall be ſearched and ſealed. Enforced by 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 7. ſect. 14.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon occupying the Feat or Myſtery of a Currier, ſhall uſe or exerciſe the Feat or Myſtery of a Tanner, Cordwainer, Shoemaker, Butcher or other Artificer uſing cutting of Leather, during the Time that he ſhall ſo uſe or occupy the Myſtery of a Currier; (2) upon Pain of Forfeiture of ſix Shillings and eight Pence for every Hide or Skin that he ſhall curry, during the Time that he ſhall occupy or uſe any of the Myſteries aforeſaid contrary to the Meaning of this Article.

A Currier ſhall not be Tanner, Shoemaker, Butcher, &c.

XXVI. And further be it enacted, That no Currier or Curriers ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt of St. Bartholomew refuſe to curry any Leather to him or them for that Purpoſe brought, by any ſuch Artificer as is or ſhall be a Cutter of Leather, the ſame Artificer or his Servant bringing with him or them good and ſufficient Stuff as is before mentioned, for the perfect Liquoring of the ſame Leather, and that the ſaid Leather in the Preſence of the ſaid Artificers, Cutters of Leather, his Servant or Servants (if he or they will be preſent) ſhall be liquored and curried in all Things and Degrees perfectly; and if he or they will not be preſent, it ſhall nevertheleſs be likewiſe liquored and curried in his or their Abſence perfectly, with as convenient Speed as may be, not exceeding eight Days in the Summer, and ſixteen Days in the Winter, after he ſhall or may take it in Hand; (2) upon Pain to forfeit to the Party grieved, for every Hide or Piece of Leather not in this Manner curried, and well and ſpeedily dreſſed, ten Shillings.

Within what Time Leather ſhall be curried.

XXVII. CAP. XXIII.

An Act for the better Preſervation of Fiſhing in the Counties of Somerſet, Devon and Cornwal, and for the Relief of Balkers, Condors and Fiſhermen, againſt malicious Suits.

To what End Balkers, Condors and Directors did watch upon Hills in Fiſhing-time.

WHEREAS the Trade of Fiſhing for Herrings, Pilchards and Sean-fiſh, within the Counties of Somerſet, Devon and Cornwal, is and of late Time hath been very great and profitable, as well 'to divers of the Fiſhermen and Inhabitants which dwell near the Sea-Coaſts within the ſaid Counties, 'as in the Cities of London and Exeter, and elſewhere within the Realm of England and the Dominions 'thereof: (2) And whereas alſo for the neceſſary Uſe of the taking of the ſaid Herrings, Pilchards and 'other Sean-fiſh, divers Perſons within the ſaid Counties called Balkers, Huors, Condors, Directors or 'Guidors at the Fiſhing-times for the ſaid Herrings, Pilchards and other Sean-fiſh within the ſaid Counties, 'Time out of Mind have uſed to watch and attend upon the high Hills and Grounds near adjoining to 'the Sea-Coaſts within the ſaid Counties, for the Diſcovery and giving Notice to the Fiſhermen and 'Inhabitants near adjoining, when the ſaid Herrings, Pilchards and Sean-fiſh come towards or near the 'Sea-Coaſts there, and for the guiding and directing of the Fiſhermen in their Boats upon the Sea-Coaſts for the taking of the ſaid Herrings, Pilchards and other Sean-fiſh.

Suits commenced againſt Balkers, Condors and Fiſhers, for entering into the Grounds of others.

'II. And whereas alſo now of late divers Perſons having Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments near 'or adjoining to the Sea-Coaſts within the ſaid Counties where the Fiſhing Places for the taking of the 'ſaid Herrings, Pilchards and other Sean-fiſh are, have brought their Actions of Treſpaſs at the Com-'mon Law, as well in the High Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, as in inferior Courts within the ſaid 'Counties, not only againſt ſuch Balkers, Huors, Condors, Directors and Guidors, but alſo againſt ſuch 'Fiſhermen and other Perſons, for breaking of their Cloſe, as have attended their Seans or Nets for the 'Drawing and Carrying of the ſaid Fiſh on Land or Shore, and have recovered againſt them Coſts and 'Damages, to their great Loſs and Expences; (2) by reaſon whereof, ſuch Watchmen, Balkers, Huors, 'Condors, Directors and Guidors, and ſuch other Perſons as heretofore have attended the ſaid Seans and 'Fiſhing, have forborn to enter into or go upon the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments near adjoin-'ing to ſuch Fiſhing Places within the ſaid Counties, for the Watching or Diſcovery of the ſaid Herrings, 'Pilchards and other Sean-fiſh, or to balk, hue, cond or direct, or to attend the Seans or Nets as hereto-'fore they have done, and will likewiſe forbear the ſame hereafter, if Proviſion be not had and made 'that they may lawfully enter into and upon ſuch Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as do lie near 'or adjoining to the ſaid Sea-Coaſts and Places of Fiſhing as aforeſaid, for their Watching, Balking, 'Directing and Attending of the Seans, as is aforeſaid;

'III. For

'III. For Remedy whereof, and for the Maintenance of the ſaid Trade of Fiſhing, which doth ſo greatly tend to the Profit of many of the Inhabitants within the ſaid Counties, and others,' (2) Be it therefore enacted by our Sovereign Lord the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That it ſhall and may be lawful at all Time and Times hereafter to and for all and every ſuch Watchmen, Balkers, Huors, Condors, Directors and Guidors, and all ſuch Fiſhermen and other Perſons as ſhall neceſſarily attend the ſaid Seans or Nets, as aforeſaid, at the Times of Fiſhing for Herrings, Pilchards and other Sean-fiſh within the ſaid Counties where ſuch Fiſh ſhall hereafter be taken, to enter and go into and upon any Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments which do lie or adjoin near unto any ſuch Fiſhing Places, and fit, convenient and neceſſary to watch and balk in, or to draw and carry the ſaid Fiſh on Shore, and there to watch for the ſaid Fiſh, and to balk, hue, cond, direct and guide the Fiſhermen which ſhall be upon the ſaid Sea and Sea-Coaſts for the taking of the ſaid Fiſh, and to draw and carry the ſaid Fiſh on Land or Shore; any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Balkers, Condors and Fiſhers may enter into the Grounds of others to take or diſcover Fiſh.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action of Treſpaſs or other Suit ſhall at any Time hereafter happen to be attempted and brought againſt any Perſon or Perſons for entring and going on the Land for watching of the ſaid Fiſh, or for balking, huing, conding, directing or guiding of the ſaid Fiſhermen in their Boats upon Sea or Sea-Coaſts for taking of the ſaid Fiſh, or for the Landing of the ſaid Fiſh, as aforeſaid, by Authority of this preſent Act, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead Not guilty for any Thing doing by Virtue of this Act: (2) And upon the Trial of that Iſſue, the whole Matter to be given on both Parties in Evidence according to the very Truth of the ſame: (3) And after ſuch Iſſue tried for the Defendant or Defendants, or Nonſuit of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs after Appearance, the ſame Defendant or Defendants to recover his or their Damages, by reaſon of his or their wrongful Vexation in that Behalf, with Coſts alſo in that Behalf ſuſtained; (4) and that to be aſſeſſed by the ſame Jury that ſhall try the ſaid Iſſue; or elſe by Writ to enquire of the Damages as the Caſe ſhall require; (5) for which Coſts and Damages ſuch Defendant ſhall and may by Virtue of this Act take and ſue forth ſuch Execution as the Defendant in a Replevin may do.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act againſt the Deceitful and falſe Making of Mildernix and Powle-Davies, whereof Sail-Clothes for the Navy and other Shipping are made.

'WHEREAS the Clothes called Mildernix and Powle-Davies, whereof Sail-Clothes and other Furniture for the Navy and Shipping are made, were heretofore altogether brought out of France and other Parts beyond the Seas, and the Skill and Art of making and weaving of the ſaid Clothes never known or uſed in England, until about the two and thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen of famous Memory Queen Elizabeth, about what Time, and not before, the perfect Art and Skill of making and weaving of the ſaid Clothes was attained unto, and ſithence practiſed and continued in this Realm, to the great Benefit and Commodity thereof:

First made in France, and after learned and practiſed in England. 9 Geo. 2. c. 37. which is continued by 24 Geo. 2. c. 52.

'II. And whereas of late many of the King's Majeſty's Subjects, not trained nor brought up in the ſaid Art, nor any ways ſkilful therein, have notwithſtanding, upon Deſire of Gain, made and weaved, or cauſed to be made and weaved, many Clothes in Likeneſs and Shew of Mildernix and Powle-Davies, but in Truth neither made of ſuch Stuff as the ſaid Mildernix and Powle-Davies are and ought to be made of, nor ſo well driven or weaved, nor yet of that Length nor Breadth, as the true Clothes called Mildernix and Powle-Davies are and ought to be; (2) inſomuch that the ſaid Clothes do yearly and daily grow worſe and worſe, and are made more thinner, ſleighter and meaner, than heretofore they have been, to the great Deceit and Hurt of all his Highneſs loving Subjects that are to uſe and imploy the ſame about the Sails and other Furniture of their Ships and ſailing Veſſels, and to the great Damage of his Highneſs Navy, the chiefeſt Strength of this Realm, (next unto God and his Highneſs) and within ſhort Time like utterly to overthrow the Art and Trade of making Cloth of that Kind within this Realm; whereupon his Highneſs ſaid Subjects, as well the Makers as Uſers of the ſaid Clothes are much hurt and impoveriſhed through the Deceitfulneſs, Unſkilfulneſs and Ignorance of the Weavers and Makers of the ſaid Clothes.'

Mildernix made in England neither of good Stuff, nor well weaved.

III. For Remedy and Redreſs whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, with the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons reſiant, inhabitant or dwelling within this Realm, ſhall at any Time after the firſt Day of Auguſt next coming make, weave or cauſe to be made and weaved, any ſuch Cloth or Clothes for Sails, or Furniture of Ships, or other ſailing Veſſels, called, termed or known by the Name or Names of Mildernix and Powle-Davies, or any of them, but ſuch as now do uſe the ſame, or any of their Servants, or ſuch as ſhall hereafter be Apprentices, and trained and brought up in the Trade and Art of making of the ſaid Clothes by the Space of ſeven Years together at the leaſt; nor ſhall ſet any Man to work in the making or weaving of any ſuch Clothes, being not a Workman trained up before the firſt Day of Auguſt next coming in the ſaid Art and Myſtery; (2) upon Pain that every ſuch Perſon offending or doing the contrary, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every Default twenty Shillings for every Month.

IV. And further, That no Perſon or Perſons from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt ſhall make or weave the ſaid Clothes of any other Stuff than of good and ſufficient Hemp, nor of any leſs Length than three and thirty Yards, nor of any leſs Breadth than three Quarters of a Yard: (2) Nor that the Weaver, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall ſell or offer to ſell any of the ſaid Clothes before the Stuff be well beaten, ſcowred, bleached, and the Cloth well driven with a brazen or iron Shuttle; (3) upon Pain that every

Of what Stuff, Goodneſs, Length and Breadth, Mildernix and Powle-Davies ſhall be made.

Perſon offending or doing the contrary herein, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Piece of Cloth woven, made or ſold contrary to the Form of this Act, five Shillings.

Who ſhall have the Forfeitures.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the one Moiety of the Benefit of all the Forfeitures and Penalties in this Act contained ſhall come and be unto the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof unto ſuch as will ſue for the ſame in any of the King's Majeſty's Courts, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt, Information or otherwiſe; in which Actions, Suits, Plaints or Informations, no Wager of Law, Eſſoin or Protection ſhall be allowed.

'AT the second Session of Parliament begun and holden by Prorogation at Westminster the fifth Day 'of November in the third Year of the Reign of our most gracious Sovereign Lord James, by the 'Grace of God, of England, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and of Scotland the 'nine and thirtieth: And there continued until the seven and twentieth of May: (And from this second 'Session of Parliament, ending the said seven and twentieth of May, the said Parliament was prorogued 'until the eighteenth of November next following, one thousand six hundred and six,) to the high Pleasure 'of Almighty God, and to the Weal publick of this Realm, were enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

An Act for a Publick Thanksgiving to Almighty God every Year on the fifth Day of November.

'FOrasmuch as Almighty God hath in all Ages shewed his Power and Mercy in the miraculous and 'gracious Deliverance of his Church, and in the Protection of Religious Kings and States; (2) and 'that no Nation of the Earth hath been blessed with greater Benefits than this Kingdom now enjoyeth, 'having the true and free Profession of the Gospel under our most gracious Sovereign Lord King James, 'the most great, learned and religious King that ever reigned therein, enriched with a most hopeful and 'plentiful Progeny, proceeding out of his Royal Loins, promising Continuance of this Happiness and 'Profession to all Posterity: (3) The which many malignant and deviliſh Papists, Jesuits and Seminary 'Priests, much envying and fearing, conspired most horribly, when the King's most excellent Majesty, 'the Queen, the Prince, and all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, should have been 'assembled in the Upper House of Parliament upon the fifth Day of November in the Year of our Lord 'one thousand six hundred and five, suddenly to have blown up the said whole House with Gun-'powder: (4) An Invention so inhumane, barbarous and cruel, as the like was never before heard of, 'and was (as some of the principal Conspirators thereof confess) purposely devised and concluded to be 'done in the said House, that where sundry necessary and religious Laws for Preservation of the Church 'and State were made, which they falsly and slanderously term cruel Laws, enacted against them and 'their Religion, both Place and Persons should be all destroyed and blown up at once; (5) which 'would have turned to the utter Ruin of this whole Kingdom, had it not pleased Almighty God, by 'inspiring the King's most excellent Majesty with a Divine Spirit, to interpret some dark Phrases of a 'Letter shewed to his Majesty, above and beyond all ordinary Construction, thereby miraculously dis-'covering Yearly Prayer shall be made for the Delivery of the King, &c. from the Gunpowder Treason. The Blessings of England by the King and his Progeny. The Gun-powder Treason conspired to have been effected 5 Nov. Ann. Dom. 1605.

How the Treason was discovered.

'covering this hidden Treason not many Hours before the appointed Time for the Execution thereof: '(6) Therefore the King's most excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and all his 'Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects, do most justly acknowledge this great and infinite Blessing to 'have proceeded meerly from God his great Mercy, and to his most holy Name do ascribe all the 'Honour, Glory and Praise: (7) And to the End this unfeigned Thankfulness may never be forgotten, 'but be had in a perpetual Remembrance, that all Ages to come may yield Praises to his Divine Majesty 'for the same, and have in Memory THIS JOYFUL DAY OF DELIVERANCE;

Thanks shall be given to God in every Church yearly upon the fifth Day of November.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and singular Ministers in every Cathedral and Parish Church, or other usual Place for common Prayer, within this Realm of England and the Dominions of the same, shall always upon the fifth Day of November say Morning Prayer, and give unto Almighty God thanks for this most happy Deliverance: (2) And that all and every Person and Persons inhabiting within this Realm of England and the Dominions of the same, shall always upon that Day diligently and faithfully resort to the Parish Church or Chapel accustomed, or to some usual Church or Chapel where the said Morning Prayer, Preaching, or other Service of God shall be used, and then and there to abide orderly and soberly during the Time of the said Prayers, Preaching, or other Service of God there to be used and ministred.

The Minister shall give Warning of the Day the Sunday before.

III. And because all and every Person may be put in Mind of this Duty, and be then better prepared to the said Holy Service, Be it enacted by Authority aforesaid, That every Minister shall give warning to his Parishioners publickly in the Church at Morning Prayer, the Sunday before every such fifth Day of November, for the due Observation of the said Day: And that after Morning Prayer or Preaching upon the said fifth Day of November, they read publickly, distinctly and plainly this present Act.

CAP. II.

An Act for the Attainder of divers Offenders in the late most barbarous, monstrous, detestable and damnable Treasons.

Certain Persons attainted of High Treason for conspiring to blow up with Gunpowder the Parliament-House. Treasons practised in the Time of Queen Elizabeth.

'IN most humble Manner beseechen your most excellent Majesty, your most loyal, faithful and true-hearted Subjects, The Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, That whereas Arthur Creswel Jesuit, who at the Time of his Profession to be a Jesuit took upon him the Name of Joseph Creswel, Oswald Tesmond Jesuit and Thomas Winter late of Huddington in the County of Worcester, Gentleman, the last Day of June in the four and fortieth Year of the late Queen Elizabeth of famous Memory, at Valedolid within the Kingdom of Spain, and at divers other Days within the same four and fortieth Year of the said late Queen, at Valedolid aforesaid, and elsewhere within the same Kingdom of Spain, by the Means, Procurement and Privity of Robert Catesby, late of Ashby in the County of Northampton, Esquire, Francis Tresham, late of Rushton in the said County of Northampton, Esquire, and Henry Garnet Jesuit, (assuming upon him to be Superior of the Jesuits within this Realm of England) and others, being all natural-born Subjects of this Realm, did traiterously and against the Duty of their Allegiance, move and incite Philip, then and yet King of Spain, then being at open Enmity and Hostility with the said late Queen, with Force to invade this Kingdom of England, and to join with the Papists and discontented Persons within this Realm of England, to depose and overthrow the same late Queen of and from her Crown, and of and from all her Royal Estate, Title and Dignity, and to suppress and abolish the true Religion of Almighty God, truly and sincerely professed within this Kingdom, and to restore the Superstitious Romish Religion within the same, and to bring this ancient, famous and most renowned Kingdom to utter Ruin and miserable Captivity under foreign Power: (2) And for that the greatest Impediment unto the same Invasion, would be the Want of Help of good Horses, the said Thomas Winter, the rather to encourage the same King thereunto, was to offer to the same King on the Behalf of the Papists of England, to give him Assistance presently upon the Landing of his Forces, with one thousand five hundred, or two thousand Horses; (3) and that for their better Accomplishing thereof, he should move the same King to furnish the Papists of England with a good Sum of Money, partly to be imployed to provide and furnish the Horses, and partly in Pensions, to be imployed upon some such as were to be prepared for that Service: (4) All which the said Thomas Winter did relate to the said King of Spain, who (the said Kingdoms of England and Spain then standing in Hostility) took that Offer in very good Part, saying, That he would respect and account of the Catholicks of England, (meaning the Papists) as of his own Castilians, and thereupon agreed that he would make Invasion, and set Foot in England, about the Spring then next following, and would by way of Exchange send over unto the Papists of England one hundred thousand Crowns, to be paid at two several Days agreed upon. All which Particulars are extant in the Confession of some of the chiefest Offenders; at which Time sundry Papists of England did extraordinarily furnish themselves by the traiterous and wicked Perswasion and Means of sundry Jesuits, both with Horse and Armour.

To what Intent the Treasons were practised.

The King of Spain's Answer to the Traitor's Motion.

'II. But before these Things could be effected, Almighty God called the said late Queen to his Mercy: Immediately after whose Decease, that is to say, in the same Month of March, wherein she departed out of this World, Christopher Wright, late of London, Gentleman, was imployed by the said Robert Catesby, Francis Tresham, Henry Garnet and others, into Spain, to negotiate with the said King of Spain, by the Means of the said Creswel the Jesuit, and others, to proceed in that Invasion, which the said Thomas Winter had before negotiated with him: (2) And afterward on the two and twentieth Day of June in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign over this Realm of England, Sir William Stanley, Knight, Hugh Owen, Esquire, William Baldwin, Jesuit, and others, did by and with the traiterous Procurement, but being wholly diſappointed of all their 'Hopes concerning that Matter, the ſaid Robert Cateſby, and divers other Perſons within this Realm, did 'ſend over the ſaid Thomas Winter into the ſaid County of Flanders, to procure the ſaid Guy Fawks, a na-'tural-born Subject of this Realm, and yet a moſt traiterous, deſperate and bloody-minded Perſon, then 'ſerving as a Soldier in the Low-Countries, to come over into this Realm, and by and with the traiterous 'Conſpiracy and Conſent of the ſaid Henry Garnet, Oſwald Teſmond, John Gerrard, and other Jeſuits, 'and Thomas Pearcy, late of London, Eſquire, John Wright, late of London, Gentleman, the ſaid Chriſto-'pher Wright, Francis Treſham, Robert Winter, late of Huddington aforeſaid, Eſquire, John Graunt, late 'of Norbrook in the County of Warwick, Eſquire, Ambroſe Rookwood, late of Stanningfield in the County 'of Suffolk, Eſquire, Everard Digby, late of Goteburſt in the County of Buckingham, Knight, Robert Keyes, 'late of London, Gentleman, and Thomas Bates, late of London, Yeoman, to undertake the Execution of 'the moſt wicked, barbarous, execrable and abominable Treaſon that ever could enter into the Heart of 'the moſt wicked Man, by blowing up with Gun-powder the Houſe of Parliament, at ſuch Time as 'your moſt excellent Majeſty, and your deareſt Conſort the Queen, and the moſt noble Prince Henry, 'together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, the Judges of the Realm, and the Knights, Citizens, 'and Burgeſſes of Parliament, ſhould be in the ſaid Parliament-houſe aſſembled, (for which moſt traiter-'ous and barbarous Purpoſe there were ſecretly laid in a Vault or Cellar under the Parliament-'houſe, thirty-ſix Barrels of Gun-powder, or thereabouts) to the utter Overthrow and Subverſion of 'the whole State of this flouriſhing and renowned Kingdom, if God of his infinite Mercy had not moſt 'miraculouſly, by your Majeſty's bleſſed Direction, diſcovered the ſame, in finding out the ſaid Barrels 'of Gun-powder in the ſaid Vault or Cellar, but few Hours before the Time appointed for the Execution 'thereof; (3) all which moſt heinous, horrible and damnable Treaſons are moſt manifeſt and apparent by 'the voluntary Confeſſions and Acknowledgments of the Offenders themſelves: Of which moſt bar-'barous, bloody and deteſtable Treaſon for conſpiring and preparing to blow up the ſaid Parliament-houſe 'with Gun-powder, the ſaid Robert Winter, Thomas Winter, Guy Fawks, Robert Keys, Ambroſe Rookwood, 'John Graunt and Thomas Bates, have been lately indicted, and during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, 'arraigned, convicted by Verdict, and therupon attained: (4) And the ſaid Sir Everard Digby, Knight, 'hath likewiſe been indicted, and during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament convicted and attainted by his 'own Confeſſion of Record upon his Arraignment, according to the Laws of this your Majeſty's Realm, 'as by the Records of their ſeveral Indictments and Attainders it doth and may more plainly appear; (5) 'and for the which Offences the ſaid Sir Everard Digby, Robert Winter, Thomas Winter, Guy Fawks, Am-'broſe Rookwood, John Graunt, Robert Keys and Thomas Bates, have ſuffered Pains of Death according to 'their Demerits: (6) And the ſaid Robert Cateſby, Thomas Pearcy, John Wright and Chriſtopher Wright, 'were lately ſlain in open Rebellion, by them and others the ſaid moſt wicked Traitors moved and ſtirred 'within divers Parts and Counties of this Realm, ſhortly after the ſaid Diſcovery of their ſaid moſt deteſt-'able and damnable Treaſon, in conſpiring and preparing to blow up the ſaid Parliament-houſe as afore-'ſaid: (7) and the ſaid Hugh Owen doth (of Purpoſe, and for Fear of condign Puniſhment according to 'his Demerits) reſide and keep himſelf beyond the Seas, by Means whereof he cannot in Reſpect of ſuch 'his voluntary Abſence, be arraigned, and publickly by due Trial of Law, upon apparent Teſtimony 'and Proof againſt him, be proceeded withal for his ſaid moſt heinous and abominable Treaſons: (8) 'And the ſaid Francis Treſham being likewiſe one of the ſaid moſt deteſtable Traitors, and being appre-'hended and impriſoned in the Tower of London, having by ſundry his Examinations confeſſed himſelf a 'principal Traitor in all the ſaid moſt wicked and abominable Treaſons, died in the ſaid Tower, during 'the Time of his ſaid Impriſonment, and before he could be indicted of the ſaid Treaſon, &c. EXP.

CAP. III.

An Act declaratory, explaining the Branch of an Act made in the firſt Seſſion of this Parliament, intituled, 'An Act authoriſing certain Commiſſioners of the Realm of England to treat with the Commiſſioners of 'Scotland, for the Weal of both Kingdoms.' 4 Jac. 1. c. 1. 1. Jac. 1. c. 2.

CAP. IV.

An Act for the better diſcovering and repreſſing of Popiſh Recuſants.

'FOraſmuch as it is found by daily Experience, that many his Majeſty's Subjects that adhere in 'their Hearts to the Popiſh Religion, by the Infection drawn from thence, and by the wicked and 'deviliſh Counſel of Jeſuits, Seminaries, and other like Perſons dangerous to the Church and State, are 'ſo far perverted in the Point of their Loyalties and due Allegiance unto the King's Majeſty, and the 'Crown of England, as they are ready to entertain and execute any treaſonable Conſpiracies and

'Prac-

'Practices, as evidently appears by that more than barbarous and horrible Attempt to have blown up 'with Gun-Powder the King, Queen, Prince, Lords and Commons in the Houſe of Parliament aſſem- 'bled, tending to the utter Subverſion of the whole State, lately undertaken by the Inſtigation of Je- 'ſuits and Seminaries, and in Advancement of their Religion, by their Scholars taught and inſtructed 'by them to that Purpoſe, which Attempt by the only Goodneſs of Almighty God was diſcovered 'and defeated: (2) And where divers Perſons popiſhly affected, do nevertheleſs, the better to cover and 'hide their falſe Hearts, and with the more Safety to attend the Opportunity to execute their miſ- 'chievous Deſigns, repair ſometimes to Church, to eſcape the Penalty of the Laws in that Behalf provided:'

Some popiſhly affected do repair to the Church.

II. For the better Diſcovery therefore of ſuch Perſons, and their evil Affections to the King's Majeſty, and the State of this his Realm, to the End that being known, their evil Purpoſes may be the better prevented; (2) be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Popiſh Recuſant convicted, or hereafter to be convicted, which heretofore hath conformed him or her ſelf, or which ſhall hereafter conform him or her ſelf, and repair to the Church, and continue there during the Time of Divine Service, according to the Laws and Statutes in that Behalf made and provided, ſhall within the firſt Year next after the End of this Seſſion of Parliament (if he or ſhe be conformed, as aforeſaid, before the End of this Seſſion of Parliament) or within the firſt Year next after that he or ſhe ſhall after this Seſſion of Parliament ſo conform him or her ſelf, and repair to Church, as aforeſaid; and after the ſaid firſt Year, ſhall once in every Year following at the leaſt, receive the bleſſed Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the Church of that Pariſh where he or ſhe ſhall moſt uſually abide or be within the ſaid Year, wherein by the true Meaning of this Statute he or ſhe ought ſo to receive:

ſaid Shire, Limit, Diviſion, or Liberty: (3) And if at the ſaid next Aſſizes and General Gaol-delivery or Seſſions, the ſame Offender ſo proclaimed ſhall not make Appearance of Record, that then upon every ſuch Default recorded, the ſame ſhall be as ſufficient a Conviction in Law of the ſaid Offence whereof the Party ſhall ſtand indicted as aforeſaid, as if upon the ſame Indictment a Trial by Verdict thereupon had proceeded, and been found againſt him or her, and recorded. Conviction of a Recuſant.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Offender in not repairing to Divine Service, but forbearing the ſame, contrary to the Statutes in that Behalf made and provided, that hereafter ſhall fortune to be thereof once convicted, ſhall in ſuch of the Terms of Eaſter and Michaelmas as ſhall be next after ſuch Conviction, pay into the Receipt of the Exchequer after the Rate of twenty Pounds for every Month which ſhall be contained in the Indictment whereupon ſuch Conviction ſhall be; (2) and ſhall alſo for every Month after ſuch Conviction, without any other Indictment or Conviction, forfeit twenty Pounds, and pay into the Receipt of the Exchequer aforeſaid, at two Times in the Year, that is to ſay, in every Eaſter and Michaelmas Term, as much as then ſhall remain unpaid, after the Rate of twenty Pounds for every Month after ſuch Conviction; (3) except in ſuch Caſes where the King ſhall and may by Force of this Act refuſe the ſame, and take two Parts of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Leaſes and Farms of ſuch Offender, till the ſaid Party being indicted for not coming to Church, contrary to former Laws, ſhall conform himſelf and come to Church, according to the Meaning of the Statute in that Behalf made and provided. IX. And that every Conviction recorded for any Offence before-mentioned, ſhall from the Juſtices before whom the Record of ſuch Conviction ſhall be remaining, be certified into the King's Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, before the End of the Term following ſuch Conviction, in ſuch convenient Certainty for the Time and other Circumſtances, as the Court of Exchequer may thereupon award out Proceſs for the Seizure of the Lands and Goods of every ſuch Offender, as the Caſe ſhall require: (2) And if Default ſhall be made in any Part of any Payment aforeſaid, contrary to the Form herein before limited, that then and ſo often the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall and may by Proceſs out of the ſaid Exchequer, take, ſeize and enjoy all the Goods, and two Parts as well of all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Leaſes and Farms of ſuch Offender, as of all other the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments liable to ſuch Seizure, or to the Penalties aforeſaid, by the true Meaning of this Act, leaving the third Part only of the ſame Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Leaſes and Farms, to and for the Maintenance and Relief of the ſaid Offender, his Wife, Children and Family. Every Conviction ſhall be certified into the Exchequer.

'X. And whereas by an Act made in the Seſſion of Parliament holden by Prorogation at Weſtminſter 'in the three and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, intituled, "An Act to re-'tain the Subjects of the ſaid late Queen in their due Obedience", It was amongſt other Things 'enacted by Authority of the ſaid Parliament, That every Perſon above the Age of ſixteen Years, 'which ſhould not repair to ſome Church, Chapel, or uſual Place of Common Prayer, but forbear the ſame 'contrary to the Tenor of a Statute made in the firſt Year of the Reign o the ſaid late Queen, for Uni-'formity of Common Prayer, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhould forfeit to the ſaid Queen, for 'every Month after the End of the ſaid Seſſion of Parliament which he or ſhe ſhould ſo forbear, twenty 'Pounds of lawful Engliſh Money, as in and by the ſaid Act of Parliament more at large appeareth:' The Statute of 23 Eliz. c. 1. touching a Recuſant's monthly Forfeiture. 1 Eliz. c. 2.

'XI. And whereas afterward by another Act of Parliament of the ſaid Queen, it was further enacted 'by the Authority of the ſaid Parliament (amongſt other Things) how and when the ſaid Payments of 'the ſaid twenty Pounds ſhould be made, and that if Default ſhould be made in any Part of any Pay-'ment of the ſaid twenty Pounds, contrary to the Form in the ſaid laſt ſpecified Statute limited, that 'then and ſo often the ſaid Queen ſhould and might by Proceſs out of her Highneſs Exchequer take, 'ſeize and enjoy all the Goods, and two Parts as well of all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, 'Leaſes and Farms of ſuch Offender, as of all other the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments liable 'to ſuch Seizure or to the Penalties aforeſaid, by the true Meaning of the ſaid Act of Parliament, leaving 'the third Part only of the ſame Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Leaſes and Farms, to and for 'the Maintenance and Relief of the ſame Offender, his Wife, Children and Family, as in and by the 'laſt ſpecified Statute more at large alſo may appear: (2) Now foraſmuch as the ſaid Penalty of twenty 'Pounds monthly is a greater Burden unto Men of ſmall Living, than unto ſuch as are of better Ability, 'and do refuſe to come unto Divine Service, as aforeſaid, who rather than they will have two Parts of 'their Lands to be ſeized, will be ready always to pay the ſaid twenty Pounds according to the Limitata-'tion of the ſaid Statutes, and yet retain the Reſidue of their Livings and Inheritance in their own 'Hands, being of great yearly Value, which they do for the moſt Part employ (as Experience hath 'taught) to the Maintenance of Superſtition and Popiſh Religion, and to the Relief of Jeſuits, Semi-'naries, Popiſh Prieſts, and other dangerous Perſons to the State; (3) Therefore to the Intent that here-'after the Penalty for not repairing to Divine Service might be inflicted in better Proportion upon Men 'of great Ability;' (4) Be it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall from and after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next coming after the End of this Seſſion of Parliament, have full Power and Liberty to refuſe the Penalty of twenty Pounds a Month, though it be tendred ready to be paid according to the Law, and thereupon to ſeize and take to his own Uſe, and the Uſes, Intents and Purpoſes hereafter limited, two Parts in three Parts to be divided, as well of all the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Leaſes and Farms that at the Time of ſuch Seizure ſhall be, or afterward ſhall come to any the ſaid Offenders in not coming to Church, or any other to his or her Uſe, or in Truſt for him or her, or at his or her Diſpoſition, or whereby or wherewith, or in Conſideration whereof, ſuch Offender or his Family, or any of them, ſhall be relieved, maintained or kept, as of all other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in any wiſe or at any Time liable to ſuch Seizure, or to the Penalties aforeſaid, and the ſame to retain to his own and How by the Statute of 29 Eliz. c. 6. the Queen ſhould recover Forfeitures due to her by Recuſants. other Uſes, Intents and Purpoſes hereafter in this Act appointed, till every ſuch Offender ſhall conform him or her ſelf reſpectively, as aforeſaid, in Lieu and full Recompence of the twenty Pounds monthly, that, during his ſuch Seizure and Retainer, ſhall incur; any Thing in the ſaid Statutes, or any of them, or any other Statute, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: (5) Saving to our Sovereign Lord the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, (other than the ſaid Offender, his or her Heirs, and all claiming to his or their Uſe, or in Truſt for him or them, or at his or their Will or Diſpoſition) all and all manner of Leaſes, Rents, Conditions, and other Rights and Titles whatſoever had, made and done, bona fide, and without Fraud and Covin, before ſuch Seizure.

Saving the Right of others.

A Recuſant's Manſion-houſe ſhall be reſerved to him. The King's two Parts ſhall not be demiſed to a Recuſant.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall not take into his two Parts, but leave to ſuch Offender his chief Manſion-Houſe, as Part of his third Part, and ſhall not demiſe, leaſe nor put over the ſaid two Parts, nor any Part thereof, to any Recuſant, nor to or for the Uſe of any Recuſant: (2) And that whoſoever ſhall take the ſame in Leaſe, or otherwiſe, of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall give ſuch Security not to commit, nor ſuffer Waſte to be committed, in or upon any the ſaid Premiſſes, as by the Court of Exchequer ſhall be allowed ſufficient.

Who are compellable to take the Oath.

XIII. And for the better Trial how his Majeſty's Subjects ſtand affected in Point of their Loyalty and due Obedience; (2) be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, it ſhall be lawful to and for any Biſhop in his Dioceſe, or any two Juſtices of Peace, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, within the Limits of their Juriſdiction, out of the Seſſions, to require any Perſon of the Age of eighteen Years or above, being or which ſhall be convict or indicted of or for any Recuſancy, other than Noblemen or Noblewomen, for not repairing to Divine Service, according to the Laws of this Realm; (3) or which ſhall not have received the ſaid Sacrament twice within the Year then next paſt, Noblemen and Noblewomen excepted; (4) or any Perſon paſſing in or through the Country, Shire or Liberty, and unknown, except as is laſt before excepted, that being examined by them upon Oath ſhall confeſs or not deny himſelf or herſelf to be a Recuſant, or ſhall confeſs or not deny that he or ſhe had not received the ſaid Sacrament twice within the Year then laſt paſt, to take the Oath hereafter following upon the Holy Evangeliſts: (5) Which ſaid Biſhop or two Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall certify in Writing ſubſcribed with his or their Hands at the next General or Quarter Seſſions for that Shire, Limit, Diviſion or Liberty, within which the ſaid Oath ſhall be ſo taken, the Chriſtian-name, Surname, and Place of Abode of every Perſon which ſhall ſo take the ſaid Oath; which Certificate ſhall be there recorded by the Clerk of the Peace or Town-Clerk, and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid Seſſions.

Refuſal of the Oath. 1 Bulſtr. 199.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, other than Noblemen or Noblewomen, ſhall refuſe to anſwer upon Oath to ſuch Biſhop or Juſtices of Peace examining him or her, as aforeſaid, or to take the ſaid Oath ſo duly tendred unto him or her by ſuch Biſhop, or two ſuch Juſtices of Peace, out of Seſſions, that then the ſaid Biſhop or Juſtices of Peace ſhall and may commit the ſame Perſon to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until the next Aſſize or General or Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for the ſaid Shire, Diviſion, Limit or Liberty; (2) where the ſaid Oath ſhall be again in the ſaid open Aſſizes or Seſſions required of ſuch Perſon, by the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſize or Juſtices of Peace then and there preſent, or the greater Number of them: (3) And if the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, or any other Perſon whatſoever, other than Noblemen or Noblewomen, of the Age of eighteen Years or above, ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath being tendred unto him or her by the Juſtices of Aſſize and Gaol-delivery in their open Aſſizes, or the Juſtices of Peace, or the greater Part of them, in their ſaid General or Quarter-Seſſions, every Perſon ſo refuſing ſhall incur the Danger and Penalty of Præmunire, mentioned in the Statute of Præmunire, made in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second; (4) except Women Covert, who, upon Refuſal of the ſaid Oath ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices of Aſſize in their open Aſſize, or Juſtices of Peace in their General or Quarter-Seſſions, for the ſaid Offence committed only to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, till they will take the ſaid Oath.

'XV. I A. B. do truly and ſincerely acknowledge, profeſs, teſtify and declare in my Conſcience before 'God and the World, That our Sovereign Lord King JAMES is lawful and rightful King of this 'Realm, and of all other his Majeſty's Dominions and Countries; and that the Pope neither of himſelf 'nor by any Authority of the Church or See of Rome, or by any other Means with any other hath 'any Power or Authority to depoſe the King, or to diſpoſe any of his Majeſty's Kingdoms or Dominions, 'or to authorize any Foreign Prince to invade or annoy him or his Countries, or to diſcharge any of his 'Subjects of their Allegiance and Obedience to his Majeſty, or to give Licence or Leave to any of them 'to bear Arms, raiſe Tumults or to offer any Violence or Hurt to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, State or 'Goverment, or to any of his Majeſty's Subjects, within his Majeſty's Dominions.

'(2) Alſo I do ſwear from my Heart, That notwithſtanding any Declaration or Sentence of Excom-'munication, or Deprivation made or granted, or to be made or granted, by the Pope or his Succeſſors, or 'by any Authority derived or pretended to be derived from him or his See againſt the ſaid King, his Heirs 'or Succeſſors, or any Abſolution of the ſaid Subjects from their Obedience: I will bear Faith and true 'Allegiance to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and him and them will defend to the uttermoſt of 'my Power, againſt all Conſpiracies and Attempts whatſoever which ſhall be made againſt his or their

'Perſons,

'Perſons, their Crown and Dignity, by Reaſon or Colour of any ſuch Sentence or Declaration, or 'otherwiſe, and will do my beſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and 'Succeſſors, all Treaſons and traiterous Conſpiracies which I ſhall know or hear of to be againſt him or 'any of them.

'(3) And I do further ſwear, That I do from my Heart abhor, deteſt and abjure, as impious and 'heretical, this damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes which be excommunicated or deprived 'by the Pope, may be depoſed or murdered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever.

'(4) And I do believe, and in my Conſcience am reſolved, That neither the Pope nor any other 'Perſon whatſoever, hath Power to abſolve me of this Oath or any Part thereof, which I acknowledge 'by good and full Authority to be lawfully miniſtred unto me, and do renounce all Pardons and Diſ-'penſations to the contrary.

'(5) And all theſe things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs 'Words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common Senſe and Underſtanding of the ſame 'Words, without any Equivocation or mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation whatſoever: And I do 'make this Recognition and Acknowledgment heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of 'a Chriſtian.

CAP. VI.

An Act for repealing of ſo much of one Branch of a Statute made in the firſt Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act concerning Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers, and other Artificers occupying the Cutting of Leather, as concerneth the Sealing of Sheep-Skins, and to avoid Selling of tanned Leather by Weight.

The Intent of the Statute made 1 Jac. 1. c. 22. 27 H. 8. c. 14. 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 15. 1 M. Stat. 3. c. 8. 5 Eliz. c. 22. 8 Eliz. c. 14. 18 Eliz. c. 9.

'WHEREAS by the ſame Statute it plainly appeareth, That the Intent and Meaning thereof was to make void all former Statutes made concerning Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers, and other Artificers occupying the Cutting of Leather, and to comprehend in one Statute all Things mentioned in the ſame former Laws needful to be enacted concerning Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers and other Artificers occupying the Cutting of Leather: (2) And for that in divers Branches of the ſaid late Statute touching the Sealing of Leather, amongſt many other Kinds of tanned Leather therein particularly named to be ſealed, a Rate is ſet down to be paid for Sealing of Sheep-Skins, as if Sheep-Skins had been by the Intent of the former Laws uſually ſealed; whereas in Truth Sheep-Skins are not meet to be ſealed, nor were at any Time appointed or limited by any former Law to be ſealed, becauſe the Sealing of them is a fruitleſs Charge, tending to the great Hurt and Loſs of many thouſand poor Men, and for the good of none, but only for the Gain of the Sealer thereof:'

Sheep-Skins have not been appointed by any Law to be ſealed.

There ſhall be no Penalty for houſing, buying or ſelling Sheep-Skins unſealed.

1 Jac. 1. c. 22. No tanned Leather ſhall be ſold by Weight.

'III. And where ſince the making of the ſaid Statute, his Majeſty's Subjects have been much deceived and abuſed, by ſelling of tanned Leather by Weight, the ſaid Leather being neither ſufficiently tanned, nor throughly dried as it ought to be, and before Time was wont to be:' (2) Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons, after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall utter or ſell, or cauſe to be uttered or ſold, by Weight, any Kind of tanned Leather whatſoever, (3) upon Pain of Forfeiture of the ſaid Leather ſo uttered and ſold; the ſaid Leather or the Value thereof, to be recovered in any of the King's Majeſty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint

'III. And further, for that ſundry Members of the ſaid Incorporation have by their Wills and Teſtaments given divers Sums of Money to the ſaid Company to good Uſes, which muſt return to their Executors, if this Company be diſſolved, as alſo for that the ſaid Society hath from the Beginning thereof been ever found comfortable to all, and offenſive to none: (2) Therefore whereas in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the third Year of his Majeſty's Reign, one general Act was made, intituled, An Act to enable all his Majeſty's loving Subjects of England and Wales, to Trade freely into the Dominions of Spain, Portugal and France: The general Words of which Act may be objected and urged, to extend to the annihilating and diſſolving of the ſaid particular Charter and Company, contrary to the Meaning of this High Court of Parliament, and the Intent of the Makers of that Law, as is conceived by the Opinion of ſundry learned in the Laws:' May it therefore pleaſe your moſt excellent Majeſty, with the Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that it may be enacted, explained and declared, (3) and be it enacted, explained and declared, by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid general Law ſo made as aforeſaid, neither doth nor ſhall diſſolve, annihilate or impeach the ſaid Charter, or the ſaid Company, in any their Privileges, Liberties or Immunities granted unto them by the ſaid Charter; any Thing in the foreſaid general Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. The Society comfortable to all, and hurtful to none. The Statute of 3 Jac. 1. c. 6. may be extended to the diſſolving of the ſaid Company. Anno Regni JACOBI Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ, viz. Angliæ, Franciæ & Hiberniæ septimo, & Scotiæ quadragesimo tertio.

'AT the fourth Session of Parliament begun and holden by Prorogation at Westminster the ninth Day of February 1609. in the seventh Year of the Reign of our most gracious Sovereign Lord James, by the Grace of God, of England, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and of Scotland the three and fortieth: And there continued until the three and twentieth Day of July: (And then prorogued until the sixteenth Day of October next following, 1610.) To the high Pleasure of Almighty God, and to the Weal publick of this Realm, were enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

An Act for the better Execution of Justice, and suppressing of criminal Offenders in the North Parts of the Kingdom of England.

Where an Englishman shall have his Trial that committeth

'WHEREAS in a Statute made in the third Session of this present Parliament, intituled, An Act for the utter Abolition of all Memory of Hostility, and the Dependencies thereof, between England and Scotland, and for the Repressing of Occasions of Discords and Disorders in Time to come, it was amongst other

'other Things enacted, That no natural-born Subject of the Realm of England, or the Dominions of the ſame, ſhould for any High Treaſon, Miſpriſion or Concealment of High Treaſon, Petty Treaſon, or any other whatſoever Offence or Cauſe committed within Scotland, be ſent out of England where he is apprehended, to receive his Trial, until ſuch Time as both Realms ſhould be made one in Laws and Government, which is the Thing ſo much deſired, as that wherein the full Perfection of the bleſſed Union already begun in his Majeſty's Royal Perſon conſiſteth.

Felony in Scotland. 4 Jac. 1. c. 1.

'II. Since the Making of which Statute, although thoſe Parts of the Kingdom of England, adjoining and lying near unto the Realm and Kingdom of Scotland, have been and are by his Majeſty's inceſſant Care and Princely Policy, reduced to more civil and peaceable Eſtate than could in ſhort Time have been expected or hoped for: (2) Yet Experience teacheth, that Malefactors of either Realm having committed their Offences in the other Realm, do forthwith fly and eſcape into their own Country, thereby to purchaſe their Impunity, to the great and manifeſt Grievance of the one Realm, and the Diſhonour of the other: By Means whereof very many great and heinous Offences ſince the Making of the ſaid Statute have been and are ſtill likely to be committed without condign Puniſhment; (3) for that ſince the Making of the ſaid Statute, there hath not been any one Offender committing any the Offences aforeſaid in Scotland, that hath been proſecuted to his Trial, Judgment or Execution in England, by Reaſon or upon any the Branches, Laws or Ordinances in the ſaid Statute mentioned or contained: (4) Whereby it manifeſtly appeareth, that the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Statute contained, and before in this preſent Act expreſſly mentioned, concerning the not Sending out of England any natural born Subject of this Realm or the Dominions of the ſame, for any whatſoever Offence committed within the Realm of Scotland, to receive his Trial for any the ſaid Offences, hath not brought forth that good Effect as was hoped for, and by the ſaid Law intended, to the great Prejudice and Diſhonour of both Realms:'

If an Engliſhman ſhall commit Felony in Scotland, and then fly into England, the Juſtices may ſend the Offender into Scotland to be tried.

III. For the Preventing of which apparent and too manifeſt Miſchief and Inconvenience, Be it enacted, and by the Authority of this preſent Parliament eſtabliſhed, That if at any Time or Times after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, any Perſon or Perſons ſhall commit any Offence or Offences within the Realm of Scotland, which by the Laws of this Realm of England is, are or ſhall be declared or adjudged to be Petty Treaſon, Murder, Manſlaughter, felonious Burning of Houſes and Corn, Burglary, Robbing of Houſes by Day, Robbery, Theft or Rape, and do or ſhall fly or eſcape into the Realm of England, and be or ſhall be apprehended within any the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, or any Parts or Members of the ſame, or within the Parts or Places lying on the North-ſide of the River of Tine, commonly called or known by the Names of Bedlintonſhire, Norhamſhire and Iſlandſhire, the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tine, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, with the Bounds and Liberties thereof; That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of Aſſize, or any one of them in the Abſence of the other, the Juſtices of Gaol-delivery at their Gaol-delivery, or any four of them, or the Juſtices of Peace in their General or Quarter-Seſſions, or any four of them, upon due and mature Examination of the ſaid Offence or Offences in open Seſſions, and pregnant Proofs of the ſame, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to demand and ſend all and every ſuch Offender and Offenders into the Realm of Scotland, there to receive their Trial for any the Offences aforeſaid by them there committed; any Thing in the ſaid Statute contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Continuance of this Statute.

IV. This Law to continue to the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

A like Act is to be made in Scotland.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Statute, nor any Clauſe therein contained, ſhall take Effect or be in Force, or in any wiſe be deemed or expounded to take Effect, to any Intent, Conſtruction or Purpoſe, until a Law by Act of Parliament be made and eſtabliſhed with the Realm of Scotland, for the Remanding and Sending out of the Realm of Scotland into the Realm of England, all and every Perſon and Perſons born within the Realm of Scotland, or the Dominions of the ſame, which ſhall at any Time hereafter commit any the Offences aforeſaid within the Realm of England, to receive his or their Trial in the Realm of England, for all and every the ſaid Offences by them committed in the ſaid Realm of England. [3 Car. 1. c. 4. continued until the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. c. 4.]

What they ſhall be bound unto who ſhall be naturalized or reſtored in Blood.

'FOraſmuch as the Naturalizing of Strangers, and reſtoring to Blood Perſons attainted, have been ever reputed Matters of mere Grace and Favour, which are not fit to be beſtowed upon any 'others than ſuch as are of the Religion now eſtabliſhed in this Realm;' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That no Perſon or Perſons of what Quality, Condition or Place ſoever, being of the Age of eighteen Years or above, ſhall be naturalized or reſtored in Blood, unleſs the ſaid Perſon or Perſons have received the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper within one Month next before any Bill exhibited for that Purpoſe, and alſo ſhall take the Oath of Supremacy, and the Oath of Allegiance, in the Parliament-Houſe, before his or her Bill be twice read: (3) And for the better Effecting of the Premiſſes, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Chancellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal for the Time being, if the Bill begin in the Upper Houſe, and the Speaker of the Commons Houſe of Parliament for the Time being, if the Bill begin there, ſhall have

CAP. III.

An Act for the Continuing and better Maintenance of Huſbandry and other manual Occupations, by the true Imployment of Monies given and to be given for the Binding out of Apprentices.

How Money given for Binding of poor Children to Occupations ſhall be beſtowed.

'FOraſmuch as the true Labour and Exerciſe of Huſbandry, and the Bringing up of Apprentices of both Sexes in Trades and manual Occupations, are Things very profitable in the Commonwealth, and acceptable and pleaſing unto Almighty God, there being already great Sums of Money freely given, and more in Time to come like to be given, by divers well-diſpoſed Perſons, unto the Corporations of divers Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, and unto divers Perſons in ſundry Towns not Corporate, and Pariſhes within this Realm of England, to be continually imployed in the Binding out as Apprentices, of a great Number of the pooreſt Sort of Children unto needful Trades and Occupations; the Experience whereof hath brought forth very great Profit and Commodity unto thoſe Cities, Towns and Pariſhes where any Parts of the ſaid Monies have been ſo given and imployed, and ſo no Doubt there will conſequently enſue thereof the exceeding good of the Commonwealth in general: (2) And for that the moſt Part of the poorer Sorts of Children, would (as heretofore) without ſuch good Care and Aſſiſtance be brought up in Idleneſs, and diſordered Kinds of Life, to their utter Overthrow, and to the great Prejudice of the whole Commonwealth: (3) And for that it is very likely that many other well-diſpoſed People will be the better encouraged, willingly to follow the like good Example in beſtowing alſo good Sums of Monies to the ſame good and godly Purpoſes, if it might be ſo provided, that ſuch Monies as have been already ſo freely given, or as hereafter ſhall be given, for the Binding out of ſuch poor Children Apprentices, may continually hereafter remain, and be wholly imployed accordingly.'

How Money given for the Binding out of poor Children Apprentices ſhall be employed, and by whom.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Sums of Money ſo freely given at any Time within three Years laſt paſt, or hereafter to be given by any Perſon or Perſons, to be continually imployed for the Binding out of Apprentices as aforeſaid, ſhall for ever from henceforth continue and be from Time to Time uſed and employed to ſuch Uſes, Intents and Purpoſes only, and by ſuch Perſons, and in ſuch Manner and Form as ſhall be hereafter by this preſent Act ſpecified and declared, except the ſame have been or ſhall be otherwiſe ordered or diſpoſed by the Givers thereof; That is to ſay, (2) That all Corporations of all Cities, Boroughs, and Towns Corporate, by what Name or Names ſoever they ſhall be known or incorporated, and in Towns and Pariſhes not incorporate, the Parſon or Vicar of every ſuch Town or Pariſh, together with the Conſtable or Conſtables, the Churchwarden or Churchwardens, Collectors, and the Overſeers for the Poor for the Time being, or the moſt Part of them, where any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money are already given, or ſhall be hereafter given, to be ſo imployed, ſhall from Time to Time within the ſaid ſeveral Cities, Boroughs, Towns and Pariſhes reſpectively, have the Nomination and Placing of ſuch Apprentices, and the Guiding and Imployment of all ſuch Monies as have been heretofore ſo given, or which hereafter ſhall be given, to and for the continual Binding forth of ſuch and ſo many Apprentices, and in ſuch Sort as is already, or ſhall hereafter be ſo given and appointed, either by the laſt Will and Teſtament, or by any Writing or Writings under the Hands and Seals of any Perſon or Perſons which hath already, or hereafter ſhall ſo give any Sum or Sums of Monies unto the good and godly Purpoſes and Intents aforeſaid: (3) And if the Corporation of any ſuch Cities, Boroughs or Towns Corporate, by what Name or Names ſoever they ſhall be called or incorporated, or any the Perſon or Perſons in the other Towns and Pariſhes above mentioned, appointed by this Act to have continually the Guiding and Imployment of ſuch Sums of Monies ſo already given, or hereafter to be given, to the Intents and Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall at any Time hereafter wilfully forbear or refuſe, according to their Duties in this Behalf, to imploy ſuch Sums of Money ſo given or to be given as aforeſaid, for the Binding out of ſuch Apprentices, by Means of which wilful Forbearance or Refuſing, the ſaid Money ſhall not be imployed accordingly; that then they and every of them ſo offending contrary to this Act, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of three Pounds ſix Shillings and eight Pence lawful Engliſh Money; the one Half thereof to be given to the Poor of the Town or Pariſh where ſuch Fault or Offence ſhall be done or committed; the other Moiety to the Party that ſhall ſue for the ſame; (4) and that every Man that will, may and ſhall be admitted to ſue for the ſame Moiety, for the Uſe and Benefit of the ſaid Poor, and ſhall be alſo admitted to ſue for the Forfeiture of the other Moiety, in any of the King's Majeſty's Courts of Record, to his own Benefit and Behoof, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law or Eſſoin ſhall be admitted or allowed.

The Forfeiture of thoſe who of Duty ought, and yet refuſe to employ the Money.

The Party which receiveth the Money ſhall be bound with Sureties to repay it.

III. And for that all Monies ſo given may the better continue to and for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter, Miſtreſs or Dame of every ſuch Apprentice or Apprentices that ſhall receive any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as aforeſaid, ſhall become bound with one or two ſufficient Sureties, by Bond or Obligation in double the Sum which they and every of them ſhall ſo receive Within what Time the Money ſhall be put forth.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſo given or to be given in Manner and Form, and to and for the good Uſes and Intents aforeſaid, ſhall always be put forth and imployed by the Parties aforeſaid, that by this Act ſhall have the Diſpoſing and Imployment thereof, within three Months at the furtheſt, after ſuch Money ſhall come to the Hands of the ſaid Parties, that by the Intent and true Meaning of this Act ought to diſpoſe and imploy the ſame; (2) and if at ſuch Times there ſhall not be found fit and apt Perſons to be bound out Apprentices as aforeſaid, within the ſaid Cities, Towns and Pariſhes where ſuch Sums of Money are or hereafter ſhall be given to be imployed as afore is declared; then ſuch of the pooreſt Children of any of the Pariſhes next adjoining ſhall be bound Apprentices in Manner as aforeſaid, as by the Care and good Diſcretions of the Parties which by this Act have the Diſpoſing and Imployment of the ſaid Sums of Money in the Cities, Towns and Pariſhes where it was firſt given to be imployed, ſhall be thought fit and convenient, taking ſuch Bonds and Obligations of the Perſons that ſhall receive the ſaid Sums of Money ſo put forth, and with ſuch Sureties, and upon ſuch Conditions, as is above mentioned and declared.

A Proviſion if there be not fit Perſons in that Pariſh to be Apprentices.

What Sort of Perſons ſhall be Apprentices.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Choice from Time to Time be made of the pooreſt Sorts of Children of every ſuch City, Town and Pariſh, where ſuch Monies ſhall be ſo given, and whoſe Parents are leaſt able to relieve them: (2) And that no ſuch Apprentice ſhall be above the Age of fifteen Years when he or ſhe ſhall be ſo firſt bound out an Apprentice.

Account ſhall be made of the Money employed.

VI. And for the better Execution of this Act, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons appointed by this Act to have the Imploying and Diſpoſing of any Sum or Sums of Money ſo given or to be given as aforeſaid, within any Town or Pariſh not corporate, ſhall after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, once every Year in the Eaſter Week, or within one Month next after Eaſter Day, make a true and perfect Account before four, three, or two Juſtices of the Peace, dwelling in or next to every of the ſaid Towns or Pariſhes, of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as they or any of them have imployed in binding of Apprentices, by Virtue of this Act, and of all Bonds and Obligations taken for the Payment thereof, and alſo of all ſuch Sums of Money as then ſhall happen to be remaining in their Hands not imployed: (2) And alſo ſhall at the Making and Yielding up of the ſaid Account, or within ten Days then next following, yield and deliver up unto ſuch as ſhall happen next to ſucceed them, or then to be in the ſaid Rooms and Places, all ſuch Obligations and Bonds as by them or any of them have been before that Time taken to the Uſes aforeſaid; as alſo all Sums of Money remaining in their or any of their Hands to be imployed as aforeſaid, and not imployed at the Time of the yielding up of the ſaid Account.

'WHEREAS notwithſtanding all former Laws and Proviſions already made, the inordinate and ex- 'treme Vice of exceſſive Drinking and Drunkenneſs doth more and more abound, to the great 'Offence of Almighty God, and the waſteful Deſtruction of God's good Creatures:' (2) Be it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That if any Perſon being an Alehouſe-keeper (after ſix Weeks next enſuing this preſent Seſſion of Parliament) ſhall be lawfully convicted for any Offence or Offences committed againſt any of the Branches of two former Acts of Parliament made ſithence the Beginning of this preſent Parliament, the one intituled, An Act to reſtrain the inordinate Haunting and Tipling in Inns, Alehouſes and other Victualling-houſes; the other intituled, An Act againſt the odious and loathſom Sin of Drunkenneſs; That then every Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted, ſhall for the Space of three Years next enſuing the ſaid Conviction, be utterly diſabled to keep any ſuch Alehouſe.

CAP. XI.

An Act to prevent the Spoil of Corn and Grain, by untimely Hawking, and for the better Preſervation of Pheaſants and Partridges.

The Penalty for killing of Pheaſants or Partridges at undue Times, or by undue Means. 1 Jac. 1. c. 27. Burn V. 1. 490.

'WHEREAS in the firſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament there was a good Law made, amongſt 'other Things for the Preſervation of the Game of Pheaſants and Partridges, which hath not 'yielded that good Succeſs as was by the ſame Law hoped for and intended, through diſorderly and 'unſeaſonable Hawking, whereby great Quantity of Corn and Grain hath been and is not only un- 'charitably ſpoiled and deſtroyed, but great Numbers of Pheaſants and Partridges thereby killed and 'ſpoiled, before they be either fit to be hawked at, or to be uſed for Food or Diet:'

II. For the Preventing of both which Inconveniencies and Miſchiefs, Be it enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That all and every Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, which at any Time after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament doth or ſhall hawk at, deſtroy or kill any Pheaſant or Pheaſants, Partridge or Partridges, with any Kind of Hawk or Hawks, Dog or Dogs, by Colour of Hawking, between the firſt of July and the laſt Day of Auguſt, and the ſame Offence or Offences being proved by the Confeſſion of the Party, or by the Teſtimony of two ſufficient Witneſſes upon Oath, before two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, City or Town Corporate wherein the Offence ſhall be committed, or the Party offending apprehended, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, for for every ſuch Offence, committed to the common Gaol of the ſaid County, City or Town Corporate, where the Offence ſhall be committed, or the Parties apprehended; (2) there to remain for one whole Month without Bail or Mainpriſe, unleſs that the ſaid Offender do or ſhall forthwith upon the ſaid Conviction pay, or cauſe to be paid, to the Churchwardens of the ſaid Pariſh, or unto the Overſeers of the Poor, or ſome of them, where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed, or the Party apprehended, to the Uſe of the Poor of the ſame Pariſh, the Sum of forty Shillings for every ſuch Hawking at any Pheaſant or Partridge, and twenty Shillings for every ſuch Pheaſant or Partridge which any and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo offending and convicted (as aforeſaid) by himſelf, his Hawk or Hawks, Dog or Dogs, ſhall take, kill or deſtroy, contrary to the true Purport, Intent and Meaning of this preſent Statute.

He that is puniſhed by this Law ſhall be excuſed for any other.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be at any Time hereafter convicted and puniſhed by Virtue of this Law, That then the Party ſo puniſhed ſhall not for the ſame Offence be eftſoons called in Queſtion, and puniſhed by Virtue of any other Law touching or concerning the like Offences.

Within what Time an Offender ſhall be accuſed.

IV. Provided alſo, That no Offenders ſhall be impeached or puniſhed by Virtue of this Act, unleſs he or they be accuſed as delinquent, before the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, within ſix Months next after the ſaid Offence or Offences committed or done.

'V. And whereas by a Proviſo in the ſaid Statute contained, it is provided, That it ſhall and may 'be lawful to and for every Perſon and Perſons which have or ſhall have free Warren, and to and for 'every Lord of a Manor, and to every Freeholder which is or ſhall be ſeiſed in his own Right, or 'in the Right of his Wife, of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, to the clear yearly Value of ten 'Pounds or more by the Year, over and above all Charges and Repriſes, of ſome Eſtate of Inheritance; '(2) or of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, 'for Term of Life or Lives, of the yearly Value of thirty Pounds over and above all Charges and 'Repriſes; (3) or be or which ſhall be worth in Goods or Chattels two hundred Pounds; (4) by him 'or themſelves, or by his or their menial Servants (ſufficiently authoriſed from his or their Maſter for 'that Purpoſe) to take Pheaſants and Partridges (in the Day-time only) with Nets, in and upon his 'and their own, or his or their Maſters free Warren, Manor and Freehold, or on any Part of them, 'betwixt the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel, and the Feaſt of the Birth of our Lord God yearly; 'any Thing in the ſaid Law to the contrary notwithſtanding: (5) By Colour of which Liberty ſo given 'by the ſaid Proviſo, it is found by Experience, that the ſaid Games of Pheaſants and Partridges have 'been and ſtill are likely to be much ſpoiled and deſtroyed by many mean Tenants and Freeholders, 'againſt the Will of the Lords or Owners of Inheritance of the ſaid Lands and Tenements:'

A Repeal of a Branch of the Statute of 1 Jac. 1. c. 27. allowing certain Perſons to take Pheaſants and Partridges.

VI. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Proviſo, and every Clauſe, Article and Thing therein contained, ſhall be from the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, utterly repealed, fruſtrate and made void; any Thing in the ſaid Proviſo contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Who may take Pheaſants and Partridges, where and when.

VII. And that it ſhall and may be lawful for every Perſon or Perſons which have or ſhall have free Warren, and to and for every Lord of a Manor, and to and for every Freeholder which is or ſhall be ſeiſed in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, to the clear yearly Value of forty Pounds or more, by the Year, over and above all Charges and Repriſes, of ſome Eſtate of Inheritance; (2) or of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, for Term of Life or Lives, of the yearly Value of fourſcore Pounds over and above all Charges and Repriſes; (3) or which ſhall be worth in Goods or Chattels four hundred Pounds; (4) by him or themſelves, or by his or their menial and houſhold Servants (ſufficiently authorized from his or their Maſter for that Purpoſe) to take Pheaſants and Partridges (in the Day-time only) in and upon his and their own, or his and their Maſter's free Warren, Manor and Freehold as aforeſaid, or on any Part of them, betwixt the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel and the Birth of our Lord God yearly; any Thing in the ſaid Law before mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

'VIII. And whereas the ſaid Games of Pheaſants and Partridges are exceſſively ſpoiled and deſtroyed by 'baſe Perſons, of bad and mean Condition, making a Trade and Living of the Spoiling and Deſtroying 'of the ſaid Games, who are not of Sufficiency to pay any Penalty in any former Statute mentioned, nor 'to anſwer the Coſts and Charges of any that ſhould inform and proſecute againſt them in any of his Ma'jeſty's Courts: (2) By Reaſon whereof, and for that the ſaid Offenders are hardly diſcovered, and ſeldom 'or never found offending in the Preſence of divers Witneſſes, ſo that it is very hard to convict them by 'the Teſtimony of more Witneſſes than one, by Reaſon that they ſpoil and deſtroy the ſaid Games ſe'cretly, and for the moſt part in the Night-time, and do carry ſuch Pheaſants and Partridges as they ſo de'ſtroy, likewiſe by Night, to Cities and Market-Towns to be ſold:' (3) Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons which from and after the firſt Day of September next, ſhall take, kill or deſtroy any Pheaſant or Partridge with Setting-dogs and Nets, or otherwiſe with any Manner of Nets, Snares or Engines, and the ſame Offence or Offences being proved by the Confeſſion of the Party, or by the Teſtimony of one ſufficient Witneſs upon Oath, before two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſame County, City or Town Corporate, wherein the Offence ſhall be committed, or the Party offending apprehended, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, for every ſuch Offence, committed to the common Gaol of the ſaid County, City or Town Corporate, where the Offence ſhall be committed, or the Party apprehended, (4) there to remain for three Months without Bail or Mainpriſe, unleſs that the ſaid Offender ſhall forthwith pay or cauſe to be paid to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed, the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Pheaſant or Partridge, which any and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall take, kill or deſtroy as aforeſaid, contrary to the Purport and true Meaning of this Statute; (5) and further to become bound by Recognizance in the Sum of twenty Pounds to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with Condition that he the ſaid Party ſo offending ſhall not at any Time thereafter take, kill or deſtroy any Pheaſant or Partridge; (6) which ſaid Recognizance ſhall be taken by any one or more Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid County, City or Town Corporate, where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed as aforeſaid, and ſhall be returned to the then next Quarter-Seſſions, and there to remain of Record as other Recognizances taken for the Peace.

Officers may ſearch the Houſes of Perſons ſuſpected to offend.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Conſtable and Headborough in every County, City, Town Corporate, and other Place where they ſhall be ſworn Officers, ſhall and may, by Virtue of this preſent Act, (bringing with them to that Purpoſe a lawful Warrant under the Hands of two Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City, Liberties or Town Corporate) have full Power and Authority to enter into and ſearch the Houſe or Houſes of any Perſon or Perſons (other than ſuch as by this preſent Act are allowed to take Pheaſants and Partridges with Nets as aforeſaid) being ſuſpected to have any Setting-dogs or Nets for the taking of Pheaſants and Partridges; (2) and whereſoever they ſhall find any ſuch Setting-dogs or Nets, the ſame to take, carry away and detain, kill, deſtroy and cut in Pieces, as Things prohibited by this Act, and forfeited to ſuch of the ſaid Officers as ſhall find out and take the ſame as aforeſaid.

Continuance of this Act.

X. This Law to continue unto the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer. [3 Car. 1. c. 4. continued until the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. c. 4.]

CAP. XII.

An Act to avoid the double Payment of Debts.

In what Caſe a Tradeſman's Shop-Book ſhall be no Evidence to recover a Debt.

'WHEREAS divers Men of Trades, and Handicraftſmen keeping Shop-Books, do demand Debts of their Cuſtomers upon their Shop-Books long Time after the ſame hath been due, and when as they have ſuppoſed the Particulars and Certainty of the Wares delivered to be forgotten, then either they themſelves or their Servants have inſerted into their ſaid Shop-Books divers other Wares ſuppoſed to be delivered to the ſame Parties, or to their Uſe, which in Truth never were delivered, and this of Purpoſe to increaſe by ſuch undue Means the ſaid Debt: (2) And whereas divers of the ſaid Tradeſmen and Handicraftſmen, having received all the juſt Debt due upon their ſaid Shop-Books, do oftentimes leave the ſame Books uncroſſed, or any way diſcharged, ſo as the Debtors, their Executors or Adminiſt.ators, are often by Suit of Law enforced to pay the ſame Debts again to the Party that truſted the ſaid Wares, or to his Executors or Adminiſtrators, unleſs he or they can produce ſufficient Proof by Writing or Witneſſes, of the ſaid Payment, that may countervail the Credit of the ſaid Shop-Books, which few or none can do in any long Time after the ſaid Payment:' (3) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That no Tradeſman or Handicraftſman keeping a Shop-Book as is aforeſaid, his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall after the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel next coming, be allowed, admitted or received to give his Shop-Book in Evidence in any Action for any Money due for Wares hereafter to be delivered, or for Work hereafter to be done, above one Year before the ſame Action brought, except he or they, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall have obtained or gotten a Bill of Debt or Obligation of the Debtor for the ſaid Debt, or ſhall have brought or purſued againſt the ſaid Debtor, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſome Action for the ſaid Debt, Wares or Work done, within one Year next after the ſame Wares delivered, Money due for Wares delivered, or Work done.

II. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Intercourſe of Traffick, Merchandizing, Buying, Selling, or other Trading or Dealing for Wares delivered or to be delivered, Money due, or Work done or to be done, between Merchant and Merchant, Merchant and Tradeſman, or between Tradeſman and Tradeſman, for any Thing directly falling within the Circuit or Compaſs of their mutual Trades and Merchandize, but that for ſuch Things only, they and every of them ſhall be in Caſe as if this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

III. This Act to continue to the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer. [3 Car. 1. c. 4. continued until the End of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. c. 4.]

CAP. XIII.

An Act for the Explanation of one Statute made in the ſecond Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act againſt unlawful Hunting and Stealing of Deer and Conies.

The Forfeiture for hunting or killing of Deer in a Park, &c. 3 Jac. 1. c. 13.

'WHEREAS Queſtion and Doubt hath grown and riſen upon the Expoſition of a Statute made in the ſecond Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act againſt unlawful hunting and ſtealing of Deer and Conies, for that in the Body of the ſaid Act all unlawful hunting, driving or chaſing out, or taking, killing or ſlaying any Deer or Conies within any the Parks, Places or Grounds in the ſaid Statute mentioned, againſt the Will, Mind or Pleaſure of the Owners, Occupiers or Poſſeſſioners of the ſame (as well by Day as by Night) is prohibited and made penal, in ſuch Manner and Form as in and

'by

'by the said Statute it doth and may more plainly appear; and yet by a Proviso in the said Statute contained, it is enacted, That the said Act, nor any Thing therein contained, should extend to any Offence or Offences concerning the hunting, chasing or killing of Deer or Conies, which should be done or committed in the Day-time, but only to such Offences as should be then after done or committed in the Night-time only; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding:

'II. For the Explanation of which Doubt and Question, and for that it is found by Experience, that Malefactors of that Kind have been much encouraged to chase, hunt, kill and destroy Deer in the Day-time by Colour of the said Proviso, whereby many Deer, as well in the Parks of our Sovereign Lord the King, as of many his Highness loving Subjects, have been and are still like to be unlawfully and riotously chased, hunted and destroyed by many idle, loose and disorderly Persons: (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That from and after the Feast of St. James the Apostle next ensuing, so much of the said Proviso in the said Statute contained, as concerneth the hunting, chasing out or killing of Deer only, shall be repealed, frustrated and made void; any Thing in the said Proviso of the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

A Repeal of so much of a Proviso contained in the Statute of 3 Jac. 1. c. 13. as concerned the hunting of Deer. Burn V. 1. 475 & 487.

'III. And whereas it was by the said former Statute, amongst other Things, enacted, That if any Person or Persons did or should wrongfully or unlawfully hunt, chase or drive out, or take, kill or slay any Deer within any Park or other Place in the said Statute mentioned, against the Will, Mind or Pleasure of the Owners, Occupiers or Possessioners of the same, that then every such Person so offending should satisfy and pay unto the Party grieved his treble Damages, in such Manner and Form as in the said Statute is mentioned: (2) By reason of the Uncertainty whereof, few or no Offenders have been discouraged in their said Huntings, Drivings, Chasings out, taking, killing or slaying of Deer:'

IV. For Remedy whereof, Be it further by the Authority of this present present Parliament enacted, That if any Person or Persons from and after the Feast of Saint James the Apostle next coming after the End of this present Session of Parliament, shall willingly commit any the Offences in the said Statute mentioned, concerning the unlawful chasing out, hunting, driving, taking, killing or slaying of Deer in any Park or inclosed Ground, which now is or hereafter shall be made or used for Deer, against the Will, Mind or Pleasure of the Owners, Occupiers, Possessioners, or Keepers of the same; That then all and every such Person and Persons so offending shall for every such Offence pay and satisfy unto the Party grieved the Sum of ten Pounds of current Money of England, or else treble Damages and Costs, at the Election of the Party grieved; (2) the same to be recovered in such Manner and Form as in and by the said Statute is limited and appointed for the Recovery, Taxing or Assessing of the said treble Damages; any Thing in the said Statute or in this present Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. This Law to continue unto the End of the first Session of the next Parliament. [3 Car. 1. c. 4. continued unto the End of the first Session of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. c. 4.]

CAP. XIV.

An Act for reviving of Part of a former Act made in the fourth Year of King Edward the Fourth, That no Stranger or Alien shall buy English Horns unwrought; and that the Wardens of the Horners of the City of London for the Time being, should have Power to search all manner of Wares appertaining to their Mystery in London, and twenty-four Miles on every Side of it.

'IN all humble Manner shewn and beseechen your most excellent Majesty, the Wardens and Men of Occupation of Horners of the City of London; That whereas in the Parliament holden at Westminster in the fourth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Fourth, grievous Complaint was made by Men of the Occupation of Horners, being infranchised in the City of London, how that the People of strange Lands hath come into this Land, and into divers Parts thereof, and hath bought by the Hands of their Hosts and Guides the great and chief Stuff of English Horns unwrought, of Tanners and Butchers, and carry the same over the Sea, and there employ the same in divers Works, to the great Damage of this Land, and to the final Prejudice of a great Number of Men being of the Occupation of Horners: 4 Ed. 4. c. 8.

'II. It pleased the King's Majesty, by the Advice and Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in that Parliament assembled, and at the Request of the Commons of the same, and by the Authority of the same Parliament, to ordain, establish and enact, That from the Feast of Easter, which then should be in the Year of our Lord God one thousand four hundred sixty-five, That no Stranger nor Alien, by himself or by any other, should buy any English Horns unwrought of any Tanners, Butchers, or of any other Persons, gathered or growing within the said City, or four and twenty Miles on every Side of the said City next adjoining: (2) And that no Englishman, nor other Person, should sell any English Horns unwrought to any Strangers, or cause them to be sent over the Sea, so that the said Horners would buy the said Horns at like Price as they were at the Time of the making of the said Act, upon Pain of Forfeiture of all such Horns so bought, sold or sent: (3) And that the Wardens of the said Mystery for the Time being, by the said Authority, should have full Power to search all manner of Ware pertaining to their Mystery, wrought or to be wrought, in all Places within the said City of London, and four and twenty Miles on every Side next adjoining to the same City, and within the Fairs of Sturbridge and Ely, in whose Hands they might be found: (4) And if they by their Search find any such Ware or Stuff in any Place within the said City of London and four and twenty Miles next adjoining to the same City,

No Stranger shall buy any English Horns unwrought in London, or within twenty-four Miles Compass thereof.

The Wardens of Horners may search for insufficient Wares,

'or within the Fairs of Sturbridge and Ely, in whose Hands soever they be to sell, that was defective and 'insufficient, it should be lawful to them to take the same Ware and Stuff, and bring it before the Mayor 'of the said City of London, the Mayors or Bailiffs of the aforesaid Fairs for the Time; (5) and the same 'there being proved defective, to be forfeit, the one Half thereof to our Sovereign Lord the King, and 'the other Half to the said Wardens, to be ordered at their Pleasure: (6) In which said Act it is pro-'vided, That after that Men of the said Occupation within this Land have taken out and chosen such and 'as many Horns as should be needful to their Occupation, that then it should be lawful to them all, and 'to every of them, and other Persons of this Realm of England, to sell and deliver all the Horns refused, 'which be not able to be occupied in their Mystery, to any Stranger or other Person, to send or carry be-'yond the Sea, or elsewhere, as should please them: (7) The which Act in the Parliament holden at 'Westminster in the first Year of your Highness Reign, was wholly repealed and made void:

After Englishmen have chosen Horns, Strangers may buy the Residue.

1 Jac. 1. c. 25.

'III. Forasmuch as since the Repealing of the said Act, Strangers and Aliens by the Hands of divers 'of their Factors, Servants and Dealers for them, have and do (as before the making of the said 'Statute of Edward the Fourth they did, that is) daily buy up and procure unto themselves the great and 'chief Stuff of English, Horns unwrought, of Tanners and Butchers, and otherwise, and do daily con-'vey and carry them beyond the Seas, and there make them into divers Works, whereby many Hous-'holders of your Majesty's Subjects, that lived and maintained their Families, and paid Subsidies and 'other Duties to your Highness, by the Benefit of their Labour in working the said Horns, having no 'other Trade or Means by Labour to maintain and keep themselves, their Wives and Children, 'the Company being greatly increased, and the Stuff altogether in a manner transported, occasioneth 'such a Decrease of the Ware, as hereby the Company is grown so poor and decayed, as in short Time, 'if Remedy be not provided, they and theirs shall be utterly undone: (2) And also by the repealing of 'the said Act, the Wardens of the said Horners of the said City of London are disabled to search the 'the Wares belonging to their said Craft, as well within the said City, as in other Places in the said 'Act mentioned, and have lost their Government in their Company:' (3) Therefore pleaseth it your Highness, That it may be enacted by your most excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, and every Part and Point thereof, (except Power of Search within the Fairs of Stourbridge and Ely, and except the Limitation of such Prices for Horns as they were to be had for at the making of the said Act) shall be revived, and be of like Force, Power and Virtue from henceforth, as if the same had not been repealed.

The Complaint that Strangers do buy English Horns unwrought.

Part of the Statute of 4 Ed. 4. c. 8. revived, touching Horns.

None shall sell English Horns unwrought to a Stranger.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall sell any English Horns unwrought to any Stranger, or send any English Horns unwrought over the Sea, contrary to the true Meaning of the said Act; (2) upon Pain of Forfeiture of double the Value of the Horns so by him or them so sold or sent; the same Forfeiture to be recovered by him or them that will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the King's Majesty's Courts of Record; the one Moiety thereof to be to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue for the same; in which Suit no Protection, Privilege or Wager of Law to be admitted for the Defendant.

CAP. XV.

An Act concerning some Manner of Assignment of Debts to his Majesty.

What Debts only may be assigned to the King. Hob. 253. Hugh. V. 1. 589.

'WHEREAS it is conceived that some Manner of Assignments of Debts, if they should be made 'to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the same would be inconvenient:' His Majesty there-fore is well pleased that it be enacted, (2) and be it enacted by Authority of this present Parliament, That no Debt shall at any Time after the first Day of July, which shall be in the Year of our Lord God one thousand six hundred and ten, be assigned to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by or from any Debtor or Accountant to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, other than such Debts as did before grow due originally to the King's Debtor or Accountant bona fide; (3) and that all Grants and Assignments of Debts to the King's Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, which from and after the said first Day of July shall be had or made contrary to the true Intent of this Act, shall be void and of no Force; any Law, Custom, Privilege or Thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

4 Ed. 4. c. 1. Certain coarse Cloths made in the North which shall not be searched or sealed, nor Custom nor Aulnage paid for them.

CAP. VII.

An Act for the better Repressing of Drunkenness, and restraining the inordinate Haunting of Inns, Alehouses and other Victualling-houses.

The Statutes of 1 Jac. 1. c. 9. 4 Jac. 1. c. 5. made perpetual. One Witness shall be sufficient to convict a Man of Tipling and Drunkenness. 5&6 Ed. 6. c. 25. The Oath of him that confesseth the Offence shall be a sufficient Proof against anyother.

'WHEREAS one Statute, intituled, An Act to restrain the inordinate Haunting of Tipling in Inns, Alehouses and other Victualling-houses, made in the first Year of his Highness happy Reign of England, and another Statute, intituled, An Act to repress the odious and loathsome Sin of Drunkenness, made in the fourth Year of his Highness Reign of England, were made to continue to the End of the first Session of the next Parliament, and by Experience have been found good and necessary Laws;' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Statutes, with the Alterations and Additions hereafter expressed, shall be put in due Execution and continue for ever: (2) And whereas by the said Statutes, Proof of two Witnesses is required, Be it enacted, That Proof of one Witness from henceforth shall be allowed and taken for sufficient in that Behalf: (3) And that the voluntary Confession (before any such Persons as by the said Act are authorized to minister the Oath) of any Person offending either of the said Statutes, shall suffice to convince the Person so offending; (4) after such Confession, the Oath of the Party so confessing shall and may be taken, and be a sufficient Proof against any other offending at the same Time.

And be it further enacted, That if any other Person or Persons, wheresoever his or their Habitation or Abiding be, shall at any Time hereafter be found upon View, or his own Confession, or Proof of one Witness, to be Tipling in any Inn, Alehouse or Victualling-house, such Person or Persons shall be from henceforth adjudged and construed to be within the said Statutes, as if he or they had inhabited and dwelt in the City, Town Corporate, Market-Town, Village or Hamlet where the said Inn, Alehouse or Victualling-house is or shall be, where he or they shall be so found tipling, and shall incur the like Penalty, and the same to be in such Sort levied and disposed, as in the said Act is expressed concerning such as there inhabit: (2) And the voluntary Confession of such Person or Persons so offending, before such as by the said Statutes are authorized to minister the Oath, shall suffice to convince themselves; (3) and after such Confession, the Oath of such Person or Persons so confessing, shall and may be taken by such as by the said Act have Authority to minister an Oath, and shall be a sufficient Proof against any other offending at that Time.

He that is convicted of Drunkenness shall forfeit 5*s*.

III. And be it further enacted, That any Justice of Peace in any County, and any Justice of Peace or other Head Officer in any City or Town Corporate, within their Limits respectively, shall from henceforth have Power and Authority, upon his own View, Confession of the Party, or Proof of one Witness upon Oath before him, which he by Virtue of this Act shall have Power to administer, to convince any Person of the Offence of Drunkenness, whereby such Person so convict shall incur the Forfeiture of five Shillings for every such Offence, and the same to be levied, or the Offender otherwise punished, as in the said Statute is appointed: And for the second Offence he shall become bound to the good Behaviour, as if he had been convicted in open Sessions; any Thing in the said former Statute made in the fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding.

For the second Offence he shall be bound to the good Behaviour.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person being an Alehouse-keeper, or that shall at any Time hereafter be an Alehouse-keeper, shall at any Time hereafter be lawfully convict for any Offence against any the Branches of either of the said two former Statutes, according to the Alterations and Additions therein contained, or against the true Meaning of this present Statute; That every Person so convict shall for the Space of three Years next ensuing the said Conviction be utterly disabled to keep any such Alehouse.

4 Jac. 1. c. 5. Constables, &c. shall be charged (on their Oaths) to present the Offences committed against 1 Jac. 1. c. 9. Farther provided for, by 26 Geo. 2. c. 31. and 29 Geo. 2. c. 12.

'V. And whereas in the said Statute made in the fourth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to repress the odious and loathsome Sin of Drunkenness, Constables, Churchwardens, Headboroughs, 'Tithing-men, Aleconners and Sidemen are appointed in the Oaths incident to their Offices, to be likewise charged to present the Offences contrary to the said Statute;' (2) Be it enacted, That the said Oath shall always hereafter be also enlarged, and extend to present all Offences done contrary to the Statute made in the first Session of Parliament held in the first Year of his Highness Reign, intituled, An Act to restrain the inordinate Haunting and Tipling in Inns and Alehouses, and other Victualling-houses, with the Alterations and Additions in this Act contained, made in the said fourth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, according to the Alterations and Additions of the same in this Act expressed. 1 Car. 1. c. 4.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to prevent and punish the Abuses in procuring Process and Supersedeas of the Peace and good Behaviour, out of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and to prevent the Abuses in procuring Writs of Certiorari out of the said Courts, for the removing of Indictments found before Justices of the Peace in their General Sessions.

'WHEREAS divers turbulent and contentious Persons, some out of Malice and others in Hope of Gain by way of Composition, do oftentimes upon their corporal Oaths peremptorily and corruptly taken, or otherwise upon false Suggestions and Surmises, procure Process of the Peace or good Behaviour out of his Majesty's Courts of Chancery and King's Bench, against divers of his Majesty's quiet Subjects, whose Dwellings and Abodes are (for the most part) in Counties far distant and remote

'from the said Courts, to their intolerable Trouble and Vexation, whereas they might upon good 'Cause shewed receive Justice at the Hands of the Justices of the Peace in the Counties where they 'dwell;'

Process and Writs of Supersedeas of the Peace, or good Behaviour, shall not be granted but upon Motion in open Court.

II. For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That all Process of the Peace or good Behaviour, after the End of this Session of Parliament to be granted or awarded out of the same Courts or either of them, against any Person or Persons whatsoever, at the Suit of or by the Prosecution of any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall be void and of none Effect, unless such Process shall be so granted or awarded, upon Motion first made before the Judge or Judges of the same Courts respectively, sitting in open Court, and upon Declaration in Writing, upon their Corporal Oaths, to be then exhibited unto them, by the Parties which shall desire such Process, of the Causes for which such Process shall be granted or awarded, by or out of any the said Courts respectively, and unless that such Motion and Declaration be mentioned to be made upon the Back of the Writ; the said Writings there to be entred and remain of Record: (2) And that if it shall afterwards appear unto the said Courts or either of them respectively, that the Causes expressed in such Writings or any of them be untrue; that then the Judge or Judges of the said Courts or either of them respectively, shall and may award such Costs and Damages unto the Parties grieved, for their or any of their wrongful Vexations in that Behalf, as they shall think fit: And that the Party or Parties so offending shall and may be committed to Prison by such Judge or Judges, until he or they pay the said Costs and Damages. (3) 'And whereas divers 'turbulent and contentious Persons, deservedly fearing to be bound to the Peace or good Behaviour by 'the Justices of Peace of the Counties where they dwell, do oftentimes procure themselves to be bound 'to the Peace or good Behaviour in the said Courts or one of them, upon insufficient Sureties, or upon 'colourable Prosecution of some Person or Persons, who will be ready at all Times to release them at 'their own Pleasure; whereupon his Majesty's Writs of Supersedeas are oftentimes directed to the Ju- 'stices of Peace and other his Majesty's Officers, requiring them and every of them to forbear to arrest 'or imprison the Parties aforesaid for the Causes abovesaid; by Means whereof the said turbulent and 'contentious Persons misdemean themselves amongst their Neighbours with Impunity, to the great Of- 'fence and Disturbance of their Neighbours amongst whom they converse and live, and to the Affront 'of the Justices of Peace, and to the evil Example and Encouragement of like evil-disposed Persons:'

Certioraries shall not be allowed, unless the Indictee will be bound to pay Costs.

III. Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Writs of Supersedeas after the End of this present Session of Parliament, to be granted by or out of either of the Courts aforesaid, shall be void and of none Effect, unless such Process be granted likewise upon Motion in open Court first made as aforesaid, and upon such sufficient Sureties, as shall appear unto the Judge or Judges of the same Court respectively upon Oath, to be assessed at five Pounds Lands, or ten Pounds in Goods, in the Subsidy-Book, at the least; (2) which Oaths, and the Names of such Sureties, with the Places of their Abode, and where they stand so assessed in the Subsidy-Books, shall be entred and remain of Record in the same Courts: (3) And unless it shall also first appear unto the said Judge or Judges, from whom such Supersedeas is desired, That the Process of the Peace, or good Behaviour, is prosecuted against him or them, desiring such Supersedeas bona fide, by some Party grieved, in that Court out of which such Supersedeas is desired to be so awarded and directed.

March 27, pl. 63.

'IV. And whereas divers lewd and evil-disposed Persons, commonly called common Bailers or 'Knights of the Post, being base and beggarly Persons, do oftentimes procure themselves to be as- 'sessed at high Rates in the Subsidy-Books, and sometimes do falsly take upon them the Names of other 'Men of good Ability, of Purpose to enable themselves to be accepted for Bail, which Persons being of 'small or no Ability or Worth, are ready for Lucre and Gain to become bound by Recognisance as 'Sureties for such Persons as shall procure themselves to be bound to the Peace or good Behaviour as 'aforesaid; by Means whereof the Judge or Judges of the said Courts not knowing them, may be easily 'abused and Justice deluded:'

False Sureties procured for the gaining of Writs of Supersedeas shall be punished by the Judges.

V. 'WHEREAS an Act, intituled, An Act for Ease in Pleading against troublesome and contentious Suits prosecuted against Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Constables, and certain other his Majesty's Officers, for the lawful Execution of their Office, made in the seventh Year of his Majesty's most happy Reign of England, was made to continue but for seven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Parliament after the said seven Years, which by Experience hath since been found to be a good and profitable Law:' The Statute of 7 Jac. 1. c. 5. enlarged and made perpetual. 4 Inst. 174. Burn V. 2. 93.

II. Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall from and after the End of this present Session of Parliament be perpetual and have Continuance for ever.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Churchwardens, and all Persons called Sworn-Men, executing of the Office of Churchwardens, and all Overseers of the Poor, and all others which in their Aid and Assistance, or by their Commandment, shall do any Thing touching or concerning his or their Office or Offices, shall hereafter be enabled to receive and have such Benefit and Help by Virtue of the said Act, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes, as if they had been specially named therein. Commissions, Orders, &c. provided by 13 Eliz. c. 7. & 1 Jac. 1. c. 15. shall be pursued against him that is described to be a Bankrupt by this Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That the like Commissions, Orders, Benefits and Remedies which are and be provided and limited by the said former Acts of Parliament, made in the thirteenth Year of the late Queen Elizabeth, and in the first Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord the King's Majesty, against any Bankrupts in them or either of them described, or for or concerning his, her or their Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Fees, Annuities, Offices, Goods, Chattels, Wares, Merchandize and Debts or any of them, shall and may be had, pursued, taken and expounded, against such Person and Persons as are herein and hereby declared, described or expressed to be Bankrupts, and against his, her and their Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Fees, Annuities, Offices, Goods, Chattels, Wares, Merchandize and Debts, in such Manner and Form as the same ought and might have been, if the Persons herein declared, described or expressed to be Bankrupts, had been by the said Statutes or either of them described to be Bankrupts, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for the Explanation of the Statutes made in the third, fourth and fifth Years of King Edward the Sixth, concerning the Traders of Butter and Cheese.

The Statutes of 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 21. and 5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 14. explained.

'WHEREAS in a Parliament holden at Westminster in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of the most excellent Prince of happy Memory, King Edward the Sixth, it was enacted, That no Person or Persons after the Feast of the Anunciation of our Lady then next coming, should buy to sell again any Butter or Cheese, unless he or they sold the same again by Retail in open Shop, Fair or Market, and not in Gross, upon Pain of Forfeiture of double the Value of the same Butter and Cheese so sold contrary to the Tenor of the said Act;

'II. In and by which Act it is provided and enacted, That the said Word of Retail mentioned in the said Act shall be expounded, declared and taken only where a Wey of Cheese, or a Barrel of Butter, or a less Quantity, and not above, should be sold at one Time to any Person or Persons in open Shop, Fair or Market, and that to be done without Fraud or Covin:

5 & 6 Ed. 6. c. 14.

'III. And whereas also by one other Act made in a Parliament holden at Westminster in the fifth Year of the Reign of the said late King it was enacted, (amongst other Things) That whatsoever Person or Person should ingross or get into his Hands any Butter or Cheese within the Realm of England, to the Intent to sell the same again, should be accepted, reputed and taken to be an unlawful Ingrosser, and should lose and forfeit the Value of the said Goods: (2) In which Act there is no Proviso for Retailers at all; by Occasion whereof, the Traders for Butter and Cheese for the City of London are continually vexed and molested by common Informers, sometimes upon the one Statute and sometimes upon the other, to their great Loss and Charge:

'IV. Now for that by daily Experience it is found, that the Traders of Butter and Cheese for the City of London, which fetch and provide the said Butter and Cheese out of divers Counties, upon their

'great Travel, Charge and Adventure, for Provision of the said City, and of others thereunto resorting, 'and there sell the same in their Shops in open Market, not only for the general Use and Service of the 'said City, and the Countries adjoining, but also for any Occasion which may be offered for the better 'Expedition of his Majesty's Service; as also for victualling of Ships which daily are victualled from this 'Port of London, which possibly cannot be performed by the small Quantities aforesaid, and according to 'the said Statute:

'V. And whereas the common Informers finding that the Letter of the said Statute extendeth against 'such as do sell above the Quantity of a Wey of Cheese, or of a Barrel of Butter, at one Time, though 'it be in open Shop, Fair or Market, and that in the other Act no Proviso at all is made, as aforesaid, 'for Retailers, have of late Years much troubled the Traders of Butter and Cheese within the City of 'London, with many Informations, as well upon the one Statute as the other, and have gotten several 'Sums of Money for Composition of them, albeit they then were and are Men that have been Appren-'tices, trained up in the said Trade, and have no other Living or Trade of Life, to their great Hin-'drance and Impoverishment.

The aforesaid Acts restrained as to London, Westminster or Southwark.

VI. For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That the said Acts, or any of them, or any other Act, Statute, Law, Ordinance or other Provision whatsoever heretofore, for or concerning the Sale of Butter or Cheese in open Shop, Fair or Market, or the providing or buying of any Butter or Cheese, shall not in any wise extend to any Person or Persons, being Cheesemongers or Tallow-Chandlers, free of the said City, and having been brought up as Apprentices by the Space of seven Years, trading in Butter and Cheese, for such Butter and Cheese, and either of them, as he and they shall utter and sell within London and the Liberties thereof, or within the Borough of Southwark, or the City of Westminster, for the Victualling of any of the Shipping of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or for the Ships of any other his Majesty's Subjects, or to such Butter or Cheese which he or they shall sell by any Quantities at one Time, and to one Person, not exceeding four Wey of Cheese, or four Barrels of Butter, without Fraud or Covin, so as he or they sell the same in open Shop, Fair or Market; any Thing in the said Acts and Statutes or any of them to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Justices of Peace may restrain the Traders in Butter and Cheese to buy those Commodities in the Country.

18 H. 6. c. 3. 2 & 3 Ph. & M. c. 5.

VII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Justices of the Peace of any of the Counties of this Realm of England or the Dominion of Wales, at their Quarter-Sessions of any of the said Counties, shall declare and publish in open Sessions, that the Traders aforesaid in Butter and Cheese shall forbear to buy any Butter or Cheese for any Time within the said County or Counties or within any Parts or Places of the same; that then for and during the Time of such Restraint, the said Traders in Butter and Cheese that shall buy any such Butter or Cheese, and sell the same again by Retail, contrary to any the Acts aforesaid, shall not be freed of or from any the Penalties of the said Acts, but shall be subject to the same as if this Act had never been made. (2) This Act to continue unto the End of the first Session of the next Parliament. [3 Car. 1. c. 4. continued until the End of the first Session of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. c. 4. 13 & 14 Car. 2. c. 26.

'WHEREAS there now are, and long Time have been, divers Courts of Record in divers Cities, 'Liberties, Towns Corporate and elsewhere, some of them being far remote from Westminster, 'others from the Court of Grand Sessions in Wales, which were principally ordained for the Ease and 'Quiet of such as should have Occasion to sue there for Debts, Duties and Wrongs, so that they might 'with small Expences receive Justice according to the Merits of their Causes in those inferior Courts, 'without being compelled to travel to Westminster or the Court of the Great Sessions in Wales: (2) But 'of late divers of his Majesty's loving Subjects, having for just and true Debts and other good and law-'ful Causes, commenced Suits in such inferior Courts, and prosecuted their Actions and Suits many 'Times ready for Trial, and the same Causes being for the most part but of small Value, have been 'removed into some of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster or the Court of the Great Sessions in Wales, 'and being remanded by Procedendo into the same inferior Courts where the Action or Suit was first 'commenced, the same have been again oftentimes removed into the same or other of his Majesty's 'Courts at Westminster or Court of the Great Sessions in Wales, to the intolerable Delay of Justice, and 'great Expences of Money, and Loss and Trouble, to those which justly and honestly by such Actions 'and Suits have sought only to recover or get Satisfaction for Debts, Duties or Wrongs owing, due or 'done unto them:

No Writ to remove a Suit commenced in an inferior Court shall be obeyed, unless it be delivered unto the Steward, &c. of the same Court before Issue or Demurrer joined.

A Suit once remanded shall never afterwards be removed.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if in any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Cause, not concerning Freehold or Inheritance, or Title of Land, Lease or Rent, which shall be brought, commenced or depending in any such Court of Record in any City, Liberty, Town Corporate or elsewhere, if it shall appear, or be laid in the Declaration, that the Debt, Damages or Things demanded, doth or shall not amount to or exceed the Sum of five Pounds; That then such Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Cause, shall not be stayed nor removed into any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster or other Courts as aforesaid, by any Writ or Writs whatsoever, to be sued or prosecuted forth or out of his Majesty's said Courts at Westminster or other Courts as aforesaid, other than Writs of Error or Attaint; any Law, Statute, Usage, Custom or Restraint to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for the Relief of Creditors against such Persons as die in Execution.

FOrasmuch as heretofore it hath been much doubted and questioned, if any Person being in Prison and charged in Execution by reason of any Judgment given against him, should afterwards happen to die in Execution, whether the Party at whose Suit or to whom such Person stood charged in Execution at the Time of his Death, be for ever after concluded and barred to have Execution of the Lands and Goods of such Person so dying:

The Lands of him that dies in Execution shall be chargeable with the Debts. Vin. V. 11. 37.

'II. And forasmuch as daily Experience doth manifest, that divers Persons of Sufficiency in Real and Personal Estate, minding to deceive others of their just Debts for which they stood charged in Execution, have obstinately and wilfully chosen rather to live and die in Prison than to make any Satisfaction according to their Abilities:' To prevent which Deceit, and for the Avoiding of such Doubts and Questions hereafter; (2) Be it declared, explained and enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled,

A new Execution may be awarded against the Lands of him that dies in Execution.

'FOrasmuch as the King's Majesty, out of his gracious Disposition, is and ever hath been averse from taking any Advantage, howsoever lawful and just, against any of his Subjects, growing by any Forfeiture, Breach of Condition, or strict Interpretation of his Highness Grants or Letters Patents, or the Grants or Letters Patents of any of his Royal Predecessors, of any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments; (2) and yet the Grantees or Patentees deriving their Estates by or from his Majesty or his Predecessors, have been too apt and ready to exact the Advantage of such Forfeiture, where his Majesty himself or his Predecessors have not required the same, which hath been ever held an unequal and extreme Course, and hath many Times been relieved by Suits in Courts of Equity, though with the great Charge and Trouble of the Parties endangered thereby:'

No Advantage shall be taken against the King's Patentees or Tenants for Non-payment of Rent, &c.

II. For Remedy whereof as well where the King as any of his Predecessors or Successors hath granted or shall grant the said Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, or the Reversion or any Part thereof, to any other, as where the Reversion, Remainder or Estate thereof is or shall be in the King's Majesty, or his Successors, in the Right of the Crown of England, or Duchy of Lancaster, or otherwise, his Majesty of his abundant Grace towards his loving Subjects is graciously pleased that it be enacted; (2) and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, having, holding or possessing, or which hereafter shall have, hold or possess, any Manors, Lands Tenements or Hereditaments, by Virtue or Colour of any original Grant or Lease, or Assignment of the same, made by the King's Majesty, or any of his Predecessors, or to be made by any of his Successors, for any Number of Years, for Life or Lives, in Fee-tail or Fee-simple, or other Estate, whereupon any Rent, Service or other Duty hath been, is or shall be reserved or payable with or under any Condition or Limitation of Re-entry, Cesser, or to be void for Default of Payment of such Rent, or Performance of such Service or Duty, heretofore hath made, or any other by, from or under whom he claimeth, hath made, or any which hereafter shall have, hold or possess, shall make any Default therein, and yet after such Default made, such Rent, Service or other Duty hath been or shall be answered, paid or done unto his Majesty, or any of his Predecessors or Successors, into his or their Receipt of the Exchequer, or Duchy of Lancaster, or Court of Wards, or to any other having Authority to receive the same, as the Case shall require, before any Advantage of such Forfeiture or Cause of Forfeiture hath been or shall be taken, and before any Commission awarded to enquire, or other Process issued touching the said Forfeiture, or Non-payment of Rent, that in all such Cases no Advantage shall be taken by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of, for or by Reason of any such Forfeiture or Cause of Forfeiture.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons claiming, or which afterwards shall claim, by, from or under his Majesty, or any of his Predecessors or Successors, at any Time after such Cause or Title of Forfeiture given, shall in any wise have or take any Benefit or Advantage, by Reason, Means or Colour of such Default made or to be made; (2) but that every such Estate forfeited or forfeitable by Means or Occasion of such Default of Payment of Rent, or Performance of Service or other Duty, shall be adjudged to continue and have its Being, as if no such Default or Cause of Forfeiture had been had or made; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

'WHEREAS it is of late grown to be a great and general Grievance to his Majesty's Subjects 'within the Realm of England, and the Dominion of Wales, that many lewd Persons of base 'Condition, for very little Reward or Recompence, have of late Years used and still do use to levy Fines, 'and suffer Recoveries of Lands and other Hereditaments, to acknowledge Statutes, Recognizances, Bails 'and Judgments, in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons not privy or consenting to the 'same, which hath and daily doth turn to the great Inquietation, Charge, Trouble and Undoing of 'many of the good Subjects of this Kingdom, and the rather, for that there is no Remedy in Law 'to reform these and the like Abuses:'

II. For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons which at any Time after the End of this present Session of Parliament shall acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged, any Fine or Fines, Recovery or Recoveries, Deed or Deeds inrolled, Statute or Statutes, Recognizance or Recognizances, Bail or Bails, Judgment or Judgments, in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons not privy or consenting to the same, and being thereof lawfully convicted or attainted, shall be adjudged, esteemed and taken to be Felons; (2) and suffer the Pains of Death, and incur such Forfeitures and Penalties, as Felons in other Cases convicted or attainted do by the Laws of England lose and forfeit, without the Benefit or Privilege of Clergy to be allowed to any such Offender or Offenders. (3) Provided always, That such Attainder shall not be any Corruption of Blood, nor Loss of Dower to the Wife, but the next Heir shall have the Lands whereof such Persons attainted died seised, and such Wife her Dower, as if no such Attainder had been had.

It is Felony to levy a Fine, suffer a Recovery, &c. in another's Name not privy thereto. 1 Ventr. 301. Jones Sir T. 64. 3 Keb. 604.

This Felony shall not corrupt the Blood, nor take away Dower. See 4 W. & M. c. 4.

III. Provided always, and be it likewise enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not extend to any Judgment or Judgments acknowledged by any Attorney or Attornies of Record, for any Person or Persons against whom any such Judgment or Judgments shall be had or given.

An Attorney may do it, where Judgment is given.

CAP. XXVII.

'WHEREAS many lewd Women that have been delivered of Bastard Children, to avoid their 'Shame, and to escape Punishment, do secretly bury or conceal the Death of their Children, and 'after, if the Child be found dead, the said Women do alledge, that the said Child was born dead; 'whereas it falleth out sometimes (although hardly it is to be proved) that the said Child or Children 'were murthered by the said Women, their lewd Mothers, or by their Assent or Procurement:'

II. For the Preventing therefore of this great Mischief, be it enacted by the Authority of this present Parliament, That if any Woman after one Month next ensuing the End of this Session of Parliament be delivered of any Issue of her Body, Male or Female, which being born alive, should by the Laws of this Realm be a Bastard, and that she endeavour privately, either by drowning or secret burying thereof, or any other Way, either by herself or the procuring of others, so to conceal the Death thereof, as that it may not come to Light, whether it were born alive or not, but be concealed: In every such Case the said Mother so offending shall suffer Death as in Case of Murther, except such Mother can make Proof by one Witness at the least, that the Child (whose Death was by her so intended to be concealed) was born dead. (2) And this Act to continue until the End of the first Session of the next Parliament. [3 Car. c. 14. continued until the End of the first Session of the next Parliament, and farther continued by 16 Car. 1. cap. 4.]

It shall be Murther for a Mother to conceal the Death of her bastard Child. Burn, V. 1. 180.

'AT the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the ſeventeenth Day of March, Anno Dom. one thouſand ſix hundred twenty-ſeven, in the third Year of the Reign of our moſt gracious Sovereign Lord Charles by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. The Petition exhibited to his Majeſty by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, concerning divers Rights and Liberties of the Subjects, with the King's Majeſty's Royal Anſwer thereunto in full Parliament.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty.

'HUmbly ſhew unto our Sovereign Lord the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, That whereas it is declared and enacted by a Statute made in the Time of the Reign of King Edward the Firſt commonly called Statutum de Tallagio non concedendo, That no Tallage or Aid ſhall be laid or levied by the King or his Heirs in this Realm, without the good Will and Aſſent of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Earls, Barons, Knights, Burgeſſes, and other the Freemen of the Commonalty of this Realm; (2) and by Authority of Parliament holden in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, it is declared and enacted, That from thenceforth no Perſon ſhould be compelled to make any Loans to the King againſt his Will, becauſe ſuch Loans were againſt Reaſon and the Franchiſe of the Land; (3) and by other Laws of this Realm it is provided, That none ſhould be charged by any Charge or Impoſition called a Benevolence, nor by ſuch like Charge: (4) by which the Statutes before mentioned, and other the good Laws and Statutes of this Realm, your Subjects have inherited this Freedom, That they ſhould not be compelled to contribute to any Tax, Tallage, Aid or other like Charge not ſet by common Conſent in Parliament. The Petition of Right. 34 Ed. 1. Stat. 4. c. 1. 25 Ed. 1. Stat. 1. c. 6. 1 Ed. 3. Stat. 2. c. 6. 11 R. 2. c. 9. 1 R. 3. c. 2.

'II. Yet nevertheleſs, of late divers Commiſſions directed to ſundry Commiſſioners in ſeveral Counties, with Inſtructions, have iſſued; by Means whereof your People have been in divers Places aſſembled, and required to lend certain Sums of Money unto your Majeſty, and many of them, upon their Refuſal ſo to do, have had an Oath adminiſtred unto them not warrantable by the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, and have been conſtrained to become bound to make Appearance and give Attendance before your Privy Council and in other Places, and others of them have been therefore impriſoned, confined, and ſundry other Ways moleſted and diſquieted; (2) and divers other Charges have been laid and levied upon your People in ſeveral Counties by Lord Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Commiſſioners for Muſters, Juſtices of Peace and others, by Command or Direction from your Majeſty, or your Privy Council, againſt the Laws and Free Cuſtoms of the Realm.

'III. And where alſo by the Statute called The Great Charter of the Liberties of England, it is declared and enacted, That no Freeman may be taken or impriſoned, or be diſſeiſed of his Freehold or Liberties, or his Free Cuſtoms, or be outlawed or exiled, or in any Manner deſtroyed, but by the lawful Judgment of his Peers, or by the Law of the Land. 9 H. 3. Stat. 1. c. 29.

'IV. And in the eight and twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, it was declared and enacted by Authority of Parliament, That no Man of what Eſtate or Condition that he be, ſhould be put out of his Land or Tenements, nor taken, nor impriſoned, nor diſherited, nor put to Death, without being brought to anſwer by due Proceſs of Law: 28 Ed. 3. c. 3.

'V. Nevertheleſs againſt the Tenor of the ſaid Statutes, and other the good Laws and Statutes of your Realm to that End provided, divers of your Subjects have of late been impriſoned without any Cauſe ſhewed; (5) and when for their Deliverance they were brought before your Juſtices by your Majeſty's Writs of Habeas Corpus, there to undergo and receive as the Court ſhould order, and their Keepers commanded to certify the Cauſes of their Detainer, no Cauſe was certified, but that they were detained by your Majeſty's ſpecial Command, ſignified by the Lords of your Privy Council, and yet were returned back to ſeveral Priſons, without being charged with any Thing to which they might make Anſwer according to the Law. 37 Ed. 3. c. 18. 38 Ed. 3. Stat. 2. c. 9. 42 Ed. 3. c. 3. 17 R. 2. c. 6. 2 Inſt. 187.

'VI. And whereas of late great Companies of Soldiers and Mariners have been diſperſed into divers Counties of the Realm, and the Inhabitants againſt their Wills have been compelled to receive them into their Houſes, and there to ſuffer them to ſojourn, againſt the Laws and Cuſtoms of this Realm, and to the great Grievance and Vexation of the People:

'VII. And whereas alſo by Authority of Parliament, in the five and twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, it is declared and enacted, That no Man ſhould be forejudged of Life or Limb againſt the Form of the Great Charter and the Law of the Land; (2) and by the ſaid Great 25 Ed. 3. Stat. 5. c. 4.

9 H. 3. Stat. 1. c. 29. 25 Ed. 3. Stat. 5. c. 4. 28 Ed. 3. c. 3.

'Charter and other the Laws and Statutes of this your Realm, no Man ought to be adjudged to Death 'but by the Laws eſtabliſhed in this your Realm, either by the Cuſtoms of the ſame Realm, or by Acts of 'Parliament; (3) And whereas no Offender of what Kind ſoever is exempted from the Proceedings to be 'uſed, and Puniſhments to be inflicted by the Laws and Statutes of this your Realm: Nevertheleſs of 'late Time divers Commiſſions under your Majeſty's Great Seal have iſſued forth, by which certain 'Perſons have been aſſigned and appointed Commiſſioners, with Power and Authority to proceed within 'the Land, according to the Juſtice of Martial Law, againſt ſuch Soldiers or Mariners, or other diſ'ſolute Perſons joining with them, as ſhould commit any Murther, Robbery, Felony, Mutiny or other 'Outrage or Miſdemeanor whatſoever, and by ſuch ſummary Courſe and Order as is agreeable to Mar'tial Law, and as is uſed in Armies in Time of War, to proceed to the Trial and Condemnation of ſuch 'Offenders, and them to cauſe to be executed and put to Death according to the Law Martial:

'VIII. By Pretext whereof ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects have been by ſome of the ſaid Com'miſſioners put to Death, when and where, if by the Laws and Statutes of the Land they had deſerved 'Death, by the ſame Laws and Statutes alſo they might, and by no other ought to have been judged 'and executed:

'IX. And alſo ſundry grievous Offenders, by Colour thereof claiming an Exemption, have eſcaped 'the Puniſhments due to them by the Laws and Statutes of this your Realm, by Reaſon that divers of 'your Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice have unjuſtly refuſed or forborn to proceed againſt ſuch Of'fenders according to the ſame Laws and Statutes, upon Pretence that the ſaid Offenders were puniſh'able only by Martial Law, and by Authority of ſuch Commiſſions as aforeſaid: (2) Which Commiſ'ſions, and all other of like Nature, are wholly and directly contrary to the ſaid Laws and Statutes 'of this your Realm:'

The Petition. 25 Ed. 1. Stat. 1. c. 6.

X. They do therefore humbly pray your Moſt Excellent Majeſty, That no Man hereafter be compelled to make or yield any Gift, Loan, Benevolence, Tax, or ſuch-like Charge, without common Conſent by Act of Parliament; (2) And that none be called to make Anſwer, or take ſuch Oath, or to give Attendance, or be confined, or otherwiſe moleſted or diſquieted concerning the ſame, or for Refuſal thereof; (3) And that no Freeman, in any ſuch Manner as is before-mentioned, be impriſoned or detained; (4) And that your Majeſty would be pleaſed to remove the ſaid Soldiers and Mariners, and that your People may not be ſo burthened in Time to come; (5) And that the aforeſaid Commiſſions, for proceeding by Martial Law, may be revoked and annulled; and that hereafter no Commiſſions of like Nature may iſſue forth to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to be executed as aforeſaid, leſt by Colour of them any of your Majeſty's Subjects be deſtroyed, or put to death contrary to the Laws and Franchiſe of the Land.

XI. All which they moſt humbly pray of your Moſt Excellent Majeſty as their Rights and Liberties, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; and that your Majeſty would alſo vouchſafe to declare, That the Awards, Doings and Proceedings, to the Prejudice of your People in any of the Premiſſes ſhall not be drawn hereafter into Conſequence or Example; (2) And that your Majeſty would be alſo graciouſly pleaſed, for the further Comfort and Safety of your People, to declare your Royal Will and Pleaſure, That in the Things aforeſaid all your Officers and Miniſters ſhall ſerve you according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, as they tender the honour of your Majeſty, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom. Qua quidem Petitione lecta & plenius intellecta per dictum Dominum Regem taliter eſt reſponſum in pleno Parliamento, viz. Ed. 1. Charter. ‘WHEREAS King Edward the First, of famous Memory, did for the Amendment of the Stannaries in the County of Devon, grant divers Franchises and Liberties to the Tinners there: (2) ‘And whereas in the Parliament in the fiftieth Year of King Edward the Third, upon the Petition of the ‘Commons of the County of Devon, certain Branches and Articles of the said Charter were explained in ‘Manner following, that is to say, Whereas one Article of the said Charter is in these Words following,’ Explained 50 Ed. 3. “viz. Sciatis nos ad emendationem Stannariarum nostrarum in Com. R. 2. “ubi iidem operarii operantur, & nemy aillours ne en autre manere.” (7) ‘Which Charter so declared, ‘was repeated again; and in the eighth Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second, commanded to be ‘put in Execution:

‘II. And whereas the said King Edward the First made the like Charter to the Tinners in the County ‘of Cornwall, which Charter was in the foresaid Parliament, upon the Request of the Commons of the ‘County of Cornwall, declared in the same Manner and Words:

The like Charter to Tinners in Cornwall. Declaration. ‘III. And whereas the Tinners of the Counties of Devon and Cornwall have by Virtue of the said Charters enjoyed divers and great Liberties, and are quit from all Tolls, Tallages, Aids and other Customs ‘in the Vills, Ports, Fairs and Markets within the said Counties respectively: (2) Which great Liberties ‘do of Right belong to the working Tinner, working without Fraud or Deceit in the Stannaries aforesaid, ‘and not to any other nor elsewhere working, and were granted to the said Tinners for their Incouragement in their Works: (3) And whereas of late Years sundry Inhabitants within the said Counties, and ‘others, to entitle themselves to the said Liberties, have by Fraud and Covin, for small or no Considerations, bought and acquired, and do buy and acquire to themselves decayed Tin-works, and small and ‘inconsiderable Parts in the same and other Tin-works; which Abuses are done principally to inable the ‘said false and fained Tinners to vex and sue their Neighbours in the Stannary Courts, where for the ‘most part the Defendant is unjustly debarred his Costs, although the Cause be adjudged with him; (4) ‘and the Jurisdiction of the said Stannaries hath, contrary to antient Right and Usage, and the said ‘Charters, been endeavoured to be extended out of the Places where the Tinners do work, through the ‘whole Counties of Devon and Cornwall respectively, which is no Way for the Benefit of his Majesty, but ‘for the singular Lucre of some private Persons: (5) And whereas by the said Abuses great Inconveni‘encies do follow, (that is to say) the Inhabitants of the said Counties are miserably vexed, oppressed and ‘imprisoned, his Majesty defrauded of his Aids and Customs, and the Lords and Owners of Fairs, Mar‘kets and other Franchises, of their Tolls and Duties, and the Government of the Country exceedingly ‘confounded and eluded, the said false and feigned Tinners claiming when they list to be Tinners, and ‘when they list to be Foreigners; besides, that if timely Provision be not made, the certain Decay of his ‘Majesty’s Profit in the Tin-works will ensue, for that the same being divided into so many Hands and ‘Parts, cannot conveniently be set on work, nor Contribution raised for the working of the same:’

CAP. XXX.

An Act for the Attainder of ſeveral Perſons guilty of the horrid Murther of his late Sacred Majeſty King Charles the Firſt.

'IN all humble Manner ſhew unto your moſt Excellent Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, That the horrid and execrable Murther of your Majeſty's Royal Father, our late moſt gracious Sovereign Charles the Firſt, of ever Bleſſed and Glorious Memory, hath been committed by a Party of wretched Men, deſperately wicked, and hardned in their Impiety, who having firſt plotted and contrived the Ruin and Deſtruction of this excellent Monarchy, and with it, of the true Reformed Proteſtant Religion, which had been ſo long protected by it and flouriſhed under it, found it neceſſary in order to the carrying on of their pernicious and traiterous Deſigns, to throw down all the Bulwarks and Fences of Law, and to ſubvert the very Being and Conſtitution of Parliament, that ſo they might at laſt make their Way open for any further Attempts upon the Sacred Perſon of his Majeſty himſelf; (2) and that for the more eaſy Effecting thereof, they did firſt ſeduce ſome Part of the then Army into a Compliance, and then kept the reſt in Subjection to them, partly for Hopes of Preferment, and chiefly for Fear of loſing their Imployments and Arrears, until by theſe, and other more odious Arts and Devices, they had fully ſtrengthned themſelves both in Power and Faction; which being done, they did declare againſt all Manner of Treaties with the Perſon of the King, even then while a Treaty by Advice of both Houſes of Parliament was in Being, remonſtrate againſt the Houſes of Parliament for ſuch Proceedings, ſeize upon his Royal Perſon while the Commiſſioners were returned to the Houſe of Parliament with his Anſwer; and when his Conceſſions had been voted a Ground for Peace, ſeize upon the Houſe of Commons, ſeclude and impriſon ſome Members, force out others, and there being left but a ſmall Remnant of their own Creatures (not a tenth Part of the Whole) did ſeek to ſhelter themſelves by this weak Pretence, under the Name and Authority of a Parliament; (3) and in that Name laboured to proſecute what was yet behind and unfiniſhed of their long intended Treaſon and Conſpiracy. To this Purpoſe they prepared an Ordinance for erecting a prodigious and un-heard of Tribunal, which they called An High Court of Juſtice, for Trial of his Majeſty; and having eaſily procured it to paſs in their Houſe of Commons, as it then ſtood moulded, ventured to ſend it up from thence to the Peers then ſitting, who totally rejected it; whereupon their Rage and Fury increaſing, they preſume to paſs it alone, as an Act of the Commons, and in the Name of the Commons of England; (4) and having gained the Pretence of Law made by a Power of their own making, purſue it with all poſſible Force and Cruelty, until at laſt, upon the thirtieth Day of January one thouſand ſix hundred forty and eight, his Sacred Majeſty was brought unto a Scaffold, and there publickly murthered before the Gates of his own Royal Palace: (5) And becauſe by this horrid Action the Proteſtant Religion hath received the greateſt Wound and Reproach, and the People of England the moſt unſupportable Shame and Infamy, that it was poſſible for the Enemies of God and the King to bring upon us, whilſt the Fanatick Rage of a few Miſcreants (who were as far from being true Proteſtants, as they were from being true Subjects) ſtands imputed by our Adverſaries to the whole Nation:' (6) We therefore your Majeſty's ſaid dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, do hereby renounce, abominate and proteſt againſt that impious Fact, the execrable Murther and moſt unparalleled Treaſon committed againſt the Sacred Perſon and Life of our ſaid late Sovereign your Majeſty's moſt Royal Father, and all Proceedings tending thereunto, and do beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be declared; (7) and be it hereby declared, that by the undoubted and fundamental Laws of this Kingdom, neither the Peers of this Realm, nor the Commons, nor both together in Parliament or out of Parliament, nor the People collectively or repreſentatively, nor any other Perſons whatſoever, ever had, have, hath or ought to have, any coercive Power over the Perſons of the Kings of this Realm: (8) And for the better Vindication of our ſelves to Poſterity, and as a laſting Monument of our otherwiſe inexpreſſible Deteſtation and Abhorrency of this villanous and abominable Fact, We do further beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted; (9) And be it hereby enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That every thirtieth Day of January, unleſs it falls out to be upon the Lord's Day, and then the Day next following, ſhall be for ever hereafter ſet apart to be kept and obſerved in all the Churches and Chapels of theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms of England and Ireland, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the Iſles of Jerſey and Guernſey, and all other your Majeſty's Dominions, as an Anniverſary Day of Faſting and Humiliation, to implore the Mercy of God, that neither the Guilt of that Sacred and Innocent Blood, nor thoſe other Sins by which God was provoked to deliver up both us and our King into the Hands of cruel and unreaſonable Men, may at any Time hereafter be viſited upon us or our Poſterity, (10) And whereas Oliver Cromwell deceaſed, Henry Ireton deceaſed, John Bradſhaw deceaſed, and Tho. Pride deceaſed, John Liſle, Will. Say, Sir Hardreſs Waller, Valentine Wauton, Thomas Harriſon, Edward Whalley, William Heveningham, Iſaac Penington, Henry Martin, John Barkſtead, Gilbert Millington, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, Robert Tichbourn, Owen Row, Robert Lilbourn, Adrian Scroop, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, John Carew, John Jones, Miles Corbet, Henry Smith, Gregory Clement, Thomas Wogan, Edmond Harvey, Thomas Scot, William Cawley, John Downs, Nicholas Love, Vincent Potter, Auguſtine Garland, John Dixwel, George Fleetwood, Simon Meyn, James Temple, Peter Temple, Daniel Blagrave, Thomas Wayte, John Cook, Andrew Broughton, Edward Dendy, William Hewlet, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, Daniel Axtel, are notoriouſly known to have been wicked and active Inſtruments in the Proſecution and Compaſſing that traiterous Mur-

CAP. II.

An Act for Prevention of Vexations and Oppreſſions by Arreſts, and of Delays in Suits of Law.

'WHEREAS by the ancient and fundamental Laws of this Realm, in Caſe where any Perſon is ſued, impleaded or arreſted by any Writ, Bill or Proceſs iſſuing out of any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in any Common Plea, at the Suit of any common Perſon, the true Cauſe of Action ought to be ſet forth and particularly expreſſed in ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, whereby the Defendant may have certain Knowledge of the Cauſe of the Suit, and the Officer who ſhall execute ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, may know how to take Security for the Appearance of the Defendant to the ſame, and the Sureties for ſuch Appearances may rightly underſtand for what Cauſe they become engaged; (2) and whereas there is a great Complaint of the People of this Realm, that for divers Years now laſt paſt very many of his Majeſty's good Subjects have been arreſted upon general Writs of Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, Bills of Middleſex, Latitats, and other like Writs iſſued out of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, not expreſſing any particular or certain Cauſe of Action, and thereupon kept Priſoners for a long Time for want of Bail, Bonds with Sureties for Appearances having been demanded in ſo great Sums, that few or none have dared to be Security for the Appearances of ſuch Perſons ſo arreſted and impriſoned, although in Truth there hath been little or no Cauſe of Action; (3) and oftentimes there are no ſuch Perſons who are named Plaintiffs, but thoſe Arreſts have been many Times procured by malicious Perſons, to vex and oppreſs the Defendants, or to force from them unreaſonable and unjuſt Compoſitions for obtaining their Liberty; and by ſuch evil Practices many Men have been, and are daily undone, and deſtroyed in their Eſtates, without Poſſibility of having Reparation, the Actors employed in ſuch Practices having been (for the moſt Part) poor and lurking Perſons, and their Actings ſo ſecret, that it hath been found very difficult to make true Diſcoveries or Proof thereof:' The ancient fundamental Law in proceeding to Arreſts upon Suits, to expreſs the true Cauſe of Action in the Proceſs.

II. For Remedy and Prevention of which ſo great growing Evils and Miſchiefs, and alſo for diſcouraging all frivolous and unjuſt Suits, and cauſeleſs Arreſts for the future; (2) be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twelfth Day of February in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, no Perſon or Perſons who ſhall happen to be arreſted by any Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Coroner, Steward, or Bailiff of any Franchiſe or Liberty, or by any other Officer, Miniſter, Under-Bailiff, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, within this Realm, having or pretending to have Authority or Warrant in that Behalf, by Force or Colour of any Writ, Bill, or Proceſs iſſuing or to be iſſuing out of his Majeſty's ſaid Courts of the King's Bench and Common Pleas, or either of them, in which ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs, the Certainty and true Cauſe of Action is not expreſſed particularly, and for which the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, is and are Bailable by the Statute in that Behalf made in the three and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Sixth, ſhall be forced or compelled to give Security, or to enter into Bond with Sureties, for the Appearances of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo arreſted, at the Day and Place in the ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs ſpecified or contained, in any Penalty or Sum or Sums of Money, exceeding the Sum of forty Pounds of lawful Money of England, to be conditioned for ſuch Appearances; (3) and that all Sheriffs and other Officers and Miniſters aforeſaid ſhall let to Bail and deliver out of Priſon, and from their and every of their Cuſtodies reſpectively, all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, by them or any of them arreſted upon any ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, wherein the Certainty and true Cauſe of Action is not particularly expreſſed, upon Security in the Sum of forty Pounds and no more, given for Appearance of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo arreſted unto the ſaid Sheriff or Officer aforeſaid, according to the ſaid Statute in the ſaid three and twentieth Year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Henry the Sixth in that Behalf made and provided. Perſons arreſted by Proceſs out of the King's Bench or Common Pleas, not expreſſing the Cauſe of Action, how to be bailed, and ſet at Liberty, upon their own Bonds for Appearance. 23 H. 6. c. 9.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Appearance to be entred in the Term wherein ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs is returnable, with the reſpective Officer in that Behalf, for the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, by Attorney or Attornies in the ſaid reſpective Courts from whence the ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs iſſued, unto ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, the Bond or Bonds ſo given for Appearance thereunto, be and are hereby ſatisfied and diſcharged; (2) and that after ſuch Appearance ſo entred, no Amerciaments be ſet or eſtreated upon or againſt any Sheriff or other Officer aforeſaid, or any other Perſon whatſoever, concerning the want of ſuch Appearance; (3) and unleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, ſhall put into the Court from whence ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs did iſſue, his or their Bill or Declaration againſt the Perſon or Perſons ſo arreſted, in ſome perſonal Action, or Ejectione firmæ of Lands or Tenements, before the End of the Term next following after Appearance, that then a Nonſuit for want of a Declaration may be entred againſt the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the ſaid Courts reſpectively; (4) and that every Defendant in every ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, ſhall or may have Judgment to recover Coſts againſt every ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, to be aſſeſſed, taxed and levied in ſuch Manner, and according as it is provided by the Statute for Coſts, made in the three and twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth; any former or other Bonds (given for) diſcharged upon Appearance. Nonſuit for Want of a Declaration before the End of the next Term after Appearance, and Judgment and Coſts againſt the Plaintiff. 23 H. 8. c. 15.

other Act, Statute, Ordinance, Law, Cuſtom, Order, Courſe or Uſage of either of the ſaid Courts, to the contrary thereof heretofore had, made, admitted or uſed in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Arreſts upon Capias Utlagatum, Attachments upon Reſcous, Contempts, and of Privileges excepted.

IV. Provided always, That this Act, nor any Clauſe or Thing herein before ſpecified or contained, ſhall not extend, nor be conſtrued or taken to extend, unto any Arreſts hereafter to be made upon or by Virtue of any Writ of Capias Utlagatum, Attachment upon Reſcous, or Attachment upon any Contempt, or of any Attachment of Privilege at the Suit of any privileged Perſon, or of any other Attachment for Contempt whatſoever, iſſuing or to be iſſuing out of either of the ſaid Courts, although there be no particular Certainty of the Cauſe of Action expreſſed or contained in the ſaid Writs; (2) but that nevertheleſs no Sheriff nor Under-Sheriff, nor any of the Officers or Miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall diſcharge any Perſon or Perſons taken upon any Writ of Capias Utlagatum out of Cuſtody, without a lawful Superſedeas firſt had and received for the ſame: (3) And that upon the ſaid Writs of Attachment, ſuch lawful Courſe be taken for Security for appearance therein as hath been heretofore uſed; any Thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

‘ V. And whereas many Perſons out of ill Intent to delay their Creditors from recovering their juſt ‘ Debts, continue Priſoners in the Fleet, who cannot be proceeded againſt in ſuch Manner as they might ‘ be, if they were at large:’ Now for the better Enabling all Perſons to recover their juſt Debts and Demands againſt ſuch Priſoners, (2) be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who now hath or have, or which at any Time hereafter ſhall have, Cauſe of any perſonal Action againſt any Perſon being a Priſoner in the Priſon of the Fleet, may ſue forth an Original Writ upon his or their Cauſe of Action; and that a Writ of Habeas Corpus be granted to every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, deſiring the ſame, to be directed to the Warden of the ſame Priſon, to have the Body of ſuch Priſoner before the Juſtices of the Common Pleas, at ſome certain Day in any Term, to anſwer the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon his or their ſaid Cauſe of Action; and that if the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs at the ſaid Day, put into the ſaid Court his or their Declaration, according to the ſaid Original Writ, againſt the ſaid Priſoner being preſent at the Bar, the ſaid Priſoner ſhall be bound to appear in Perſon, or to put in an Attorney to appear for him in the ſaid Action; (3) and unleſs the ſaid Defendant plead upon a Rule given, to be out at eight Days at the leaſt after ſuch Appearance, Judgment by Nihil dicit may be entred againſt ſuch Defendant as appearing in Perſon, which ſhall be good and effectual in Law: (4) And ſuch Charge in Court by Declarations, ſignified by Rule unto the ſaid Warden, ſhall be a good Cauſe of Detention of ſuch Priſoner in his Cuſtody, from which he ſhall not be diſcharged without a lawful Superſedeas or Rule of Court: (5) And if the ſaid Warden ſhall do otherwiſe, he ſhall be reſponſible to the Court, and to the Party grieved, for Damages, by Action upon the Caſe to be brought againſt him for diſcharging ſuch Priſoner.

Delays in Suits by Reaſon of 15 Days between the Teſte and Return of Writs, remedied in Actions perſonal.

‘ VI. And whereas very many Suits commenced by Original Writs have been protracted and long de- ‘ layed from Judgment and Execution, by reaſon of the Neceſſity of having fifteen Days at the leaſt be- ‘ tween the Days of the Teſte and the Days of Return of Writs now uſed in perſonal Actions, and alſo in ‘ Actions of Ejectione firmæ, for Lands and Tenements:’ (2) For Remedy thereof, and for the more eaſy expediting Trials, and the better and more ſpeedy executing of Judgments for the Time to come, (3) be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Actions of Debt, and all other perſonal Actions whatſoever, and alſo in all Actions of Ejectione firmæ for Lands or Tenements now depending, or which at any Time hereafter ſhall be depending, by Original Writ, in either of his Majeſty's Courts aforeſaid, after any Iſſue therein joined to be tried by a Jury, and alſo after any Judgment had or obtained, or to be had or obtained, in either of the Courts aforeſaid, in any ſuch Action as aforeſaid, there ſhall not need to be fifteen Days between the Teſte Day and the Day of Return of any Writ or Writs of Venire facias, Habeas corpora Juratorum, or Diſtringas Juratores, Writs of Fieri facias, or Writs of Capias ad ſatisfaciendum: (4) And that the want of fifteen Days between the Teſte Day and the Day of Return of any ſuch Writ, ſhall not be, nor ſhall be aſſigned, taken or adjudged to be, any Matter or Cauſe of Error; any Law, Cuſtom, Statute, Courſe or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Ejectione firmæ.

Venire facias, Habeas corpora Jurator. Diſtringas Jurator. Fieri facias, Capias ad ſatisfaciendum; where Exigent lieth after Judgment, or to make the Bail appear, excepted.

VII. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend or be conſtrued to extend to any Writ of Capias ad ſatisfaciendum whereon a Writ of Exigent after Judgment is to be awarded, nor to Capias ad ſatisfaciendum againſt the Defendant in order to make any Bail liable, but that the ſame continue and be as if this Act had never been made.

3 Jac. 1. c. 8. touching ſtaying Executions by Superſedeas or Writs of Error, and in what Actions it may be ſtayed.

‘ VIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the third Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign ‘ Lord King James of bleſſed Memory, a very good Law was made for avoiding unneceſſary Delays of ‘ Execution, whereby it is enacted, That no Execution ſhall be ſtayed or delayed upon or by any Writ ‘ of Error or Superſedeas thereupon to be ſued for the Reverſing of any Judgment to be given in any ‘ Action or Bill of Debt, upon any ſingle Bond for Debt, or upon any Obligation with Condition for ‘ Payment of Money only, or upon any Action or Bill of Debt for Rent, or upon any Contract ſued in ‘ any of his Highneſs Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter or ‘ Durham, or in his Highneſs Courts of Great Seſſions in any of the twelve Shires of Wales, unleſs ſuch ‘ Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Name or Names ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be brought, with two ſufficient ‘ Sureties, ſuch as the Court wherein ſuch Judgment is or ſhall be given, ſhall allow of, ſhall firſt before ‘ ſuch Stay made, or Superſedeas to be awarded, be bound to the Party for whom any ſuch Judgment was ‘ or ſhould be given, by Recognizance to be acknowledged in the ſame Court in double the Sum adjudged ‘ to be recovered by the ſaid former Judgment, to proſecute the ſaid Writ of Error with Effect, and alſo ‘ to ſatisfy and pay (if the ſaid Judgment ſhall be affirmed) all and ſingular the Debts, Damages and Coſts ‘ adjudged or to be adjudged upon the former Judgment, and all Coſts and Damages to be alſo awarded ‘ for the ſame delaying of Execution; which Law hath been found by Experience to be very good and

‘ beneficial

'beneficial to the Commonwealth: (2) And forasmuch as divers other Cases within the same Mischief, 'by Delays and Staying of Execution by Writs of Error, and Supersedeas thereupon, are not provided 'for by the said Statute:' For further Remedy against Delays and Stayings of Executions in the several Actions hereafter specified, 3 Jac. 1. c. 8.

IX. Be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twentieth Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and one, no Execution shall be stayed in any of the Courts aforesaid, by any Writ or Writs of Error or Supersedeas thereupon, after any Verdict and Judgment thereupon obtained, in any Action of Debt grounded upon the Statute made in the second Year of the Reign of the late King Edward the Sixth, for not setting forth of Tithes, nor in any Action upon the Case upon any Promise for Payment of Money, Actions sur Trover, Actions of Covenant, Detinue and Trespass, unless such Recognizance, and in such Manner, as by the said recited former Act is directed, shall be first acknowledged in the said Court where such Judgment is given. In what Actions Execution may be stayed (by Writ of Error) by this Statute. 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13. 1 Lev. 260.

X. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons after the said Day shall sue or prosecute any Writ or Writs of Error, for Reversal of any Judgment whatsoever given after any Verdict in any of the Courts aforesaid, and the said Judgment shall afterwards be affirmed, then every such Person or Persons shall pay unto the Defendant or Defendants in the said Writ or Writs of Error, his or their double Costs, to be assessed by the Court where such Writ of Error shall be depending, for the Delaying of Execution. The Defendant to have double Costs for Delays of his Execution by Writ of Error.

XI. Provided nevertheless, That this Act, nor any Thing therein contained, shall not extend to any Action Popular, nor unto any other Action which is or hereafter shall be brought upon any penal Law or Statute (except Debt for not setting out Tithes as aforesaid) nor to any Indictment, Presentment, Inquisition, Information or Appeal; any Thing herein before expressed to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. Popular Actions; or upon a penal Law, Indictments, &c. not within this Statute.

An Explanation of 12 Car. 2. c. 18. of Goods prohibited to be brought from Holland. In Part repealed by 6 Geo. 1. c. 15. §. 1.

'XXIV. And whereas also by the said Acts, For increasing and encouraging of Shipping and Navigation, an Imposition of five Shillings per Ton is laid upon all Ships or Vessels belonging to any Subjects of the French King, which shall come into any Port, Harbour, Creek or Road of England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and shall there lade or unlade any Goods, or take in or set on Shore any Passengers, yet notwithstanding there is great Difficulty in recovering the said Duty, because small Shallops come not into Harbours where Officers are, but either put their Goods and Passengers on Shore, or Boats come out of Harbours, which privately convey them on Shore, there being no Penalty in the Act against such Offenders;' (2) Be it therefore enacted, That any such Ship or Vessel upon which the above-said Imposition of five Shillings per Ton is due and payable, which shall either put on Shore, or put over into any Boat, any Goods or Passengers without Payment of Custom and Imposition of Tonnage, at any Time returning into any Harbour, Port or Creek of England or Ireland, shall not only pay the Duties formerly due, but forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds: (3) And whatsoever Pilot, Waterman or Boatman, which shall from any Harbour, Port or Creek, go out and bring any Goods from on Board such Vessel, shall not only be liable to pay the Duty of Tonnage which the said Vessel should have paid, but forfeit the Sum of forty Pounds. 12 Car. 2. c. 18. 'XXVI. And whereas the ingenious Industry of these Times hath taught the Dyers of England the Art of fixing the Colours made of Logwood alias Blockwood, so as that by Experience they are found as lasting and serviceable as the Colours made with any other Sort of Dying-Wood whatsoever: And whereas by a Statute made in the three and twentieth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth of famous Memory, intituled, Logwood and Blockwood shall not be used in Dying of Cloth, &c. And by another Statute made in the nine and thirtieth Year of the aforesaid Queen Elizabeth, (intituled, The Penalty for mixing or using of Logwood in Dying Cloth or other Stuff) all Logwood alias Blockwood, that shall be found within this Kingdom, shall be forfeited, and openly burned, with divers other Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, upon such as shall use the same in Dying Cloth or other Commodities, as by the said several Acts aforesaid may and doth appear:' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the aforesaid Statutes, and either of them, be and are hereby repealed and made void as to all Clauses, Articles, Provisions and Penalties in any wise relating to the Prohibition or Use of Logwood alias Blockwood: (3) And that from and after the first Day of February one thousand six hundred sixty and one, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, freely to import into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick upon Tweed, any Quantities of Logwood alias Logwood or Blockwood. 23 Eliz. c. 9. 39 Eliz. c. 11.

An additional Act concerning Matter of Assurance used amongst Merchants.

43 Eliz. c. 12.

Encouragements of Merchants and Trade.

Bac. V. 3. 598.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the three and fortieth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth of happy Memory, intituled, An Act concerning Matters of Assurances used amongst Merchants; the Parliament then taking into Consideration, by all good Means to comfort and encourage the Merchants of this Kingdom, thereby to advance and increase the Wealth of this Realm, her Majesty's Customs and the Strength of Shipping, and for preventing of divers Mischiefs in the said Act mentioned; it was enacted, That it should and might be lawful for the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the Time being, to award forth under the Great Seal of England one general or standing Commission to be renewed yearly at the least, and otherwise so often as unto the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper should seem meet, for the hearing and determining of Causes arising on Policies of Assurance, such as then were, or then after should be entred within the Office of Assurance of the City of London; (2) which Commissions should be directed to the Judge of the Admiralty for the Time being, the Recorder of London for the Time being, two Doctors of the Civil Law, two Common Lawyers, and eight grave or discreet Merchants, or any five of them; (3) which Commissioners, or the greater Part of them which should sit and meet, should have full Power and Authority to hear, examine, order and decree all and every such Cause or Causes in a brief and summary Course without Formalities of Pleadings or Proceedings, with Power to warn Parties to come before them, and to examine upon Oath any Witnesses that should be produced, and to commit to Prison any Person that should wilfully disobey their final Orders and Decrees; (4) and the Commissioners to sit once Weekly upon the Execution of the said Commission, with a Liberty in the said Act for any Person grieved by any such Sentence or Decree, to exhibit his Bill in Chancery for the Re-examination of such Sentence or Decree, as by the said Act, Relation being thereunto had, more at large may appear: (5) But forasmuch as by the said recited Act, without five Commissioners there cannot be a Court, and without there be a Court they cannot proceed in the Execution of their Commission, so much as to summon Parties or Witnesses to appear; and in Case of Neglect or Refusal of any Party or Witness to appear, they have no Power to punish the Delay or Contempt with Costs, or otherwise; (6) and it is provided by the said Act, That not any Commissioner, other than the Judge of the Admiralty, or the Recorder of London, shall proceed in the Execution of such Commission, before he hath taken his Oath before the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen to proceed uprightly and indifferently between Party and Party, which, upon the renewing of the said Commissions, often proves a great Delay, there being so many Commissioners to be sworn, and the Court of Aldermen not sitting at some Times in the Year when the said Commissions have happened to be renewed; (7) and although the said Commissioners upon their final Sentence have Power to commit to Prison any Person that shall wilfully disobey their said Sentences or Decrees, yet they have no Power to make any Order against the Ship or Goods, which commonly are the Things assured; (8) by which Omissions, for want of Power given by the said Act, the Benefits intended by the said Act of Parliament are much retarded, and the Mischiefs by the Act endeavoured to be prevented, much increased:'

'WHEREAS many loyal Subjects of our late Sovereign Lord King Charles the Firſt, and of the King's Majeſty that now is, were upon Pretence of Delinquency for adhering unto and faithfully ſerving their ſaid Majeſties according to their Duty and Allegiance, enforced and conſtrained by the pretended Power of the Long Parliament, not only to part with great Sums of Money in Satisfaction of the ſaid ſuppoſed Delinquency, but likewiſe to ſettle all or Part of ſuch Advowſons, Rectories, Glebe-lands and Tithes, Eſtates and Terms, as they, or any in Truſt for them, were then ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, and to make Grants and Aſſurances of Rents and Annuities to and upon ſuch Truſtees as were appointed by the ſaid Long Parliament, as well for the Augmentation of certain Vicarages, as for the Uſe and Maintenance of preaching Miniſters and Lecturers, without any valuable Conſideration given for the ſame, other than ſome Abatement of thoſe exceſſive Fines impoſed on them for their pretended Delinquency, and exacted from them by thoſe arbitrary Powers, to the Impoveriſhing and Undoing of many of the King's moſt loyal Subjects;' (2) Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That all Grants, Feoffments, Bargains and Sales, Releaſes, Confirmations, and other Conveyances and Aſſurances in the Law, of any higher or lower Nature whatſoever, had or made by any ſuch pretended Delinquents, their Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators, or by any Perſon having any Eſtate or Intereſt in Law or Equity in Truſt for them, or by any other Perſon or Perſons having any Eſtate or Intereſt jointly or in common with them, or in Reverſion or Remainder after them, to any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, of any ſuch Advowſons, Rectories impropriate, Glebe-lands, Tithes, Eſtates, Terms, Annuities and Rents as aforeſaid, to or for the Uſes aforeſaid, as Part or in full of their Compoſitions for ſuch pretended Delinquency as aforeſaid, and all Securities touching or concerning the ſame only, be and are hereby adjudged from henceforth null and void in Law to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; ſaving to all Perſons other than the ſaid Truſtees and their Heirs, and all claiming under them, all Right to the ſaid Rectories and Premiſſes as hath accrued unto them before the nineteenth Day of May one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two.

All Eſtates made by pretended Delinquents of Advowſons, Rectories, &c. for Compoſitions, made void.

Saving other Rights.

How Tenants and Leſſees under ſuch Eſtates ſhall pay their Rents.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Tenants, Leſſees and Occupiers of all ſuch Advowſons, Rectories impropriate, Glebe-lands, Tithes and Premiſſes ſo granted or ſettled to or upon ſuch Truſtees as aforeſaid, for the Uſes or Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall pay all ſuch Rents as ſhall hereafter grow due and payable to ſuch Perſons only, unto whom the Right and Intereſt of and in the ſame Advowſons, Rectories, Glebe-lands, Tithes and Premiſſes before the ſaid Conveyances or Aſſurances (intended to be annulled and made void by this preſent Act) did or ſhould of Right belong or appertain.

And whereas the ſaid Conveyances and Aſſurances in and by this Act intended to be made void, were ſome of them of Eſtates in Fee-ſimple, and ſome of them long Terms for Years made to Truſtees, who Redemiſed the ſame at and under ſuch yearly Rents and Sums of Money as were then appointed to be the Augmentation of certain Vicarages or Maintenance for preaching Miniſters, ſince which Time many of the Rectories and Lands ſo conveyed and leaſed have been abſolutely ſold, and the Re-demiſes thereof granted and aſſigned by the Owners thereof for the Benefit of ſuch Purchaſers;' (2) Be it further enacted and ordained by this preſent Parliament, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall pay, and the ſaid former Owners of the ſaid Lands and Rectories, their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall have, hold and enjoy, the ſaid Rents and Sums of Money ſo reſerved for the Augmentation of the ſaid Vicarages, and Maintenance for preaching Miniſters, upon the ſaid ſeveral Re-demiſes, and ſhall have the ſame and the like Remedies by Diſtreſs, or by Action of Debt for the Recovery thereof, as the ſaid Truſtees who Re-demiſed the ſame ſhould or might have had if this Act had not been made.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for Reforming of the Abuſes committed in the Weight and falſe Packing of Butter.

'FOraſmuch as Butter is one of the principal Commodities of the Product of this Kingdom, and is not only of an univerſal Uſe and Expence at Home, but very great Quantities thereof are tranſported beyond the Seas: (2) And whereas, by Cuſtom Time out of Mind uſed, every Kilderkin of Butter ought to weigh one hundred thirty and two Pounds Groſs at the leaſt; that is to ſay, one hundred and twelve Pounds of neat Butter, and the Caſk twenty Pounds: (3) The Firkin of Butter ought to weigh ſixty and four Pounds, viz. fifty and ſix Pounds of good and merchantable Butter neat, and the Caſk eight Pounds; (4) and the Pot of Butter ought to weigh twenty Pounds, viz. fourteen Pounds of good and merchantable Butter neat, and the Pot ſix Pounds: (5) And whereas great Complaint hath been made by the Traders in Butter and Cheeſe, That by the fraudulent Dealing and Practice of ſeveral Farmers, Owners and Packers of Butter, and by their irregular Manner of weighing with Stones, Iron Wedges, Bricks and other unwarrantable Weights, the ſame Quantities of Butter are not put up into the reſpective Caſk and Pots aforeſaid, and the Kilderkin is commonly made to weigh ſix and twenty Pounds and ſometimes eight and twenty Pounds, and the Firkin to weigh ten Pounds or twelve Pounds, and ſometimes thirteen or fourteen Pounds Weight, and the Pots are made generally to weigh ſeven Pounds, and ſome of them eight Pounds or nine Pounds Weight; (6) and much bad and decayed Butter is mixed and packed up into Kilderkins, Firkins and other Caſk and Pots, with ſound and good Butter, and immoderate Quantities of Salt intermixed, to the Spoil of the ſame, and to the great Wrong and Abuſe of his Majeſty in the Victualling of his Navy, of Merchants in the Victualling of their Ships, and of all Traders in the ſaid Commodity, and of all Houſholders who buy the ſame for their Expence, and to the great Diſhonour of the Engliſh Nation in the Parts beyond the Seas, and to the Bringing of the ſaid Commodity into great Diſrepute abroad, whereby it yields not that Price nor is vented there in ſuch Quantities as otherwiſe it would.'
